Be part of a Great West Indian Tradition

The University of the West Indies (UWI) is a well-established independent university that serves mainly the English-speaking territories of the West Indies. These countries listed hereunder all contribute to The UWI:

Anguilla, Antigua & Barbuda, Bermuda, The Cayman Islands, The Commonwealth of the Bahamas, Barbados, Belize, The British Virgin Islands, The Commonwealth of Dominica, Grenada, Jamaica, Montserrat, St. Christopher & Nevis, St. Lucia, St. Vincent & the Grenadines, The Republic of Trinidad & Tobago, Turks and Caicos.

Our annual output of graduates, Caribbean-focused research and policy advice provided to governments and the private sector, continue to have a profound influence on the English-speaking Caribbean, contributing to the region's stability and its relative wellbeing.

OUR HISTORY

The UWI is the oldest, fully regional institution of higher learning in the Commonwealth Caribbean.

The UWI began at the Mona Campus, Jamaica, in 1948 as a College of the University of London; and in 1962 achieved full university status. The St. Augustine Campus in Trinidad and Tobago was established in 1961 and in 1963 a third Campus was established at Cave Hill in Barbados. In 2008 the University established a fourth Campus – The Open Campus – to better manage and expand multi-mode delivery of its programmes.

OUR FACULTIES

The seven Faculties of The UWI offer a wide range of Undergraduate, Master's and Doctoral programmes in Food & Agriculture, Humanities & Education, Engineering, Law, Medical & Veterinary Sciences, Science & Technology; and Social Sciences. Several of these programmes are delivered through the distance mode.

SIR ARTHUR LEWIS INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC STUDIES

The Sir Arthur Lewis Institute of Social and Economic Studies (SALISES) was established in August 1999 as a research and graduate teaching institution. It has been named after Sir Arthur Lewis, Nobel Laureate in Economics and the first Vice Chancellor of the University of the West Indies.

Branches

SALISES has branches on the three physical Campuses of the University of the West Indies:

- o Cave Hill, Barbados
- o Mona, Jamaica
- o St. Augustine, Trinidad and Tobago

Each branch is headed by a Director. One of the Directors is appointed as University Director, responsible for the overall functioning of SALISES.

Research Data and Publications

The Institute hosts the Documentation and Data Centre and the Derek Gordon Data Bank, both on the Mona campus. The Institute's mandate is to conduct training and research of a regional, multidisciplinary and policy-oriented nature to serve the needs of small developing countries like those in the Caribbean. It has been designated as one of the principal units at the core of the University's School of Graduate Studies and Research.

The Institute has published an extensive list of monographs and books over the years. In addition, three journals are produced by the Institute: Social and Economic Studies (Mona); Caribbean Dialogue (St. Augustine), and the Journal of Eastern Caribbean Studies (Cave Hill).

Areas of Study

The Institute hosts a series of seminars, special lectures and an annual conference. Information on these activities may be obtained from our website <https://sta.uwi.edu/salises/>

The MPhil/PhD degree programme is research-oriented with supervision in the areas of Social Development Policy (including Human Resource Development); Governance and Public Policy; Economic Development Policy and Management; and Integration Theory and Practice. The Institute also offers taught MSc degrees in Development Studies, delivered at the Mona Campus, and in Development Statistics, delivered at the St. Augustine Campus.

The Staff

The staff of the Institute consists of active researchers in the social sciences who have published in regional and international periodicals and have been policy advisors and consultants to several organizations in the Caribbean region. Distinguished adjunct Institute staff with considerable policy experience are involved in the delivery of the Institute's degree programmes and in the provision of consulting and professional education services to the wider communities
