LECTURER IN POLITICAL SCIENCES

Be part of a Great West Indian Tradition

The University of the West Indies (UWI) is a well-established independent university that serves mainly the English-speaking territories of the West Indies. These countries listed hereunder all contribute to The UWI:

Anguilla, Antigua & Barbuda, Bermuda, The Cayman Islands, The Commonwealth of the Bahamas,

Barbados, Belize, The British Virgin Islands, The Commonwealth of Dominica, Grenada, Jamaica, Montserrat, St. Christopher & Nevis, St. Lucia, St. Vincent & the Grenadines, The Republic of Trinidad & Tobago, Turks and Caicos.

Our annual output of graduates, Caribbean-focused research and policy advice provided to governments and the private sector, continue to have a profound influence on the English-speaking Caribbean, contributing to the region's stability and its relative wellbeing.

OUR HISTORY

The UWI is the oldest, fully regional institution of higher learning in the Commonwealth Caribbean.

The UWI began at the Mona Campus, Jamaica, in 1948 as a College of the University of London; and in 1962 achieved full university status. The St. Augustine Campus in Trinidad and Tobago was established in 1961 and in 1963 a third Campus was established at Cave Hill in Barbados. In 2008 the University established a fourth Campus – The Open Campus – to better manage and expand multi-mode delivery of its programmes.

OUR FACULTIES

The seven Faculties of The UWI offer a wide range of Undergraduate, Master's and Doctoral programmes in Food & Agriculture, Humanities & Education, Engineering, Law, Medical & Veterinary Sciences, Science & Technology; and Social Sciences. Several of these programmes are delivered through the distance mode.

Visit us online at www.uwi.edu to find out more about The UWI or www.sta.uwi.edu for more on the St. Augustine Campus and the region we serve!

THE FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

The Faculty of Social Sciences is comprised of four Departments: Behavioral Sciences, Political Sciences, Economics and Management Studies. There are also a number of research centers and units and an Institute of Business that are associated with the Faculty of Social Sciences.
