ATTENTION EVENING UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

The University is affording a new opportunity for students of the EVENING UNIVERSITY who are registered for the following courses, to attend classes at the Naparima College, San Fernando. The details follow:

- ACCT 1002 - Introduction to Financial Accounting
- FOUN 1101 - Caribbean Civilization
- GOVT 1001 - Introduction to Politics
- FOUN 1201 - Science, Medicine and Technology in Society
- GOVT 1005 - Introduction to Public Policy Analysis
- FOUN 1001 - English for Academic Purposes
- GOVT 1007 - Issues in Caribbean Public Administration
- MGMT 1001 - Introduction to Management
- ECON 1002 - Introduction to Economics II
- PSYC 1004 - Introduction to Social Psychology
- ECON 1003 - Introduction to Mathematics
- PSYC 1009 - Research Methods in Psychology
- SOCI 1000 - Introduction to Sociology II
- SOCI 1005 - Introductory Statistics for the Behavioural Sciences

Please follow the step-by-step registration guide which provides details for the courses listed above (see website for link). You may check your registration status within two (2) working days to ascertain whether you received the override approval(s). You may use the following link to view the South timetable schedule: http://www2.sta.uwi.edu/timetable/south/.

Classes for aforementioned courses begin on Monday, 23rd January, 2012. There are a few remaining spaces for these classes which will be filled according to those who are first to request. For further information, kindly contact the Office of the Evening University at Tel: 868-662-2002 ext. 84331, 84470; 84471 or evening.university@sta.uwi.edu In addition, please continue to check your UWI student e-mail accounts for details on this South offering.