

Governance at start second decade of 21st century

Coalitions of state & non-state actors
(eg private sector & civil society)
around 'new' 'global' issues

Onto UN Global Compact/private transnational governance?

- From OP & KP to forestry/fisheries stewardship councils?
- But perpetuation of child soldiers & small arms?
- EITI ever more salient given impact of BRIC financial flows on fragile states/regimes?
- Beyond CSR/CCC?
- From club towards network or public diplomacy?

Interdisciplinary 'governance' & established disciplines/debates?

- Lessons from/for orthodox disciplines in 2010?
- From G8 to G20 to G200?
- Sources of catalysts for governance: academy or think tanks? N or S or E?
- Analysts/activists include: Cashore, Dingwerth, Gale, Khagram, Rittberger, Ruggie, Utting and Zadek