

MS. GAIL PAULA GUY

Retired Diplomat and Protocol Consultant

Ms. Guy is a former Foreign Service Officer in the Ministry of Foreign and CARICOM Affairs and a former Educator. Her teaching experience was at St Benedict's College, La Romaine and Point Fortin Senior Secondary School.

She has served in several of Trinidad and Tobago Missions abroad, including the High Commission in Jamaica; the Consulate General, New York; the High Commission in Nigeria; the Consulate General in Miami; the Temporary Consulate General in Sydney Australia; the Permanent Mission to the United Nations in New York; and the High Commission in London.

Ms. Guy has also served in various capacities in several Divisions of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, including as Director of the Division for African, Asian, Middle Eastern and Pacific Affairs and as Chief of Protocol.

Ms. Guy has given guest lectures at the Institute of International Relations at both the Diploma and Master's levels in the areas of Protocol and Business Etiquette; and Communications in the Foreign Service. She has also conducted similar programmes for Administrators of the Tobago House of Assembly, Anglican Church Officials in Tobago West and Liaison and Protocol Officers for various conferences and other ceremonies.

Her academic qualifications include a Bachelor of Arts, Second Class Honours [Upper Division] from the University of the West Indies, Mona, a Post-Graduate Diploma in International Relations, from the Institute of International Relations, St Augustine and a Master of Business Administration and Master of Public Management from the University of Maryland, College Park.