Participants Hail Success of Diplomatic Academy's Signature Communication Training

A highly interactive, four-day Diplomatic Academy of the Caribbean (DAOC) module entitled The Art of Corporate and Diplomatic Communication that concluded yesterday (November 14th) drew enthusiastic participation from 20 learners. Upon completion of the module, participants praised the training, which led them through a practical programme on enhancing corporate and diplomatic communication skills. The training module was held at the St. Augustine Campus of The University of the West Indies (The UWI), and its cohort of participants hail from diverse institutional settings, spanning the public, private and non-profit sectors, the church, academia, the military, two diplomatic missions and two Caribbean regional intergovernmental organisations. "Take Full Advantage of Training" Ag. IIR Director Urges in DAOC Protocol & Diplomacy Module

In her feature address today (October 14th) at the Opening Ceremony of the Diplomatic Academy of the Caribbean's (DAOC) four-day module entitled Protocol and Diplomacy: A Guide for the Modern Professional, the Acting Director of The University of the West Indies (The UWI) Institute of International Relations (IIR), Dr. Annita Montoute, underscored that, five-plus years since it was first offered by the Diplomatic Academy, interest in this signature training remains high. These proceedings were held at the St. Augustine Campus of The UWI, with the training module's participants in attendance. Read more

The DAOC marks 5 Years with Publication of E-booklet

The DAOC Advantage™

Global Outlook. Real-world Impact. Caribbean Minded.™

The DAOC is the Caribbean's premier professional development-oriented diplomatic studies centre. An integral part of The University of the West Indies' (UWI) Institute of International Relations (IIR), it was established in 2014. The DAOC has a primary teaching mandate in the area of diplomatic studies, offering short, highly specialized training modules in the broad field of diplomatic studies. It also provides an open platform for stakeholders from the academy, a diverse practitioner community and the wider public to contribute to and engage in debate on the nexus between the Caribbean and diplomacy. For further information, please visit the DAOC website or contact Dr. Nand C. Bardouille at nand.bardouille@sta.uwi.edu and diplomaticacademy@sta.uwi.edu or at tel. no.: +1-868-662-2002, ext. 85360, 85359.
