COURSE DOCUMENTATION

COURSE TITLE: LEVEL 1A SPANISH
SEMESTERS: I, II, Mid-Year Programme
LEVEL: 1
PREREQUISITES: NONE

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Candidates for this course are not required to have any prior, formal academic knowledge of the language. At the CLL we are dedicated to the promotion of communicative and cultural competence in our programmes. To this end, the focus of each session will be on the development of the four predominant skills involved in language learning (speaking, listening, reading and writing). Students will also be introduced to various cultural aspects of the language.

The course consists of four contact hours per week. As the semester progresses, learners will develop an initial ability to communicate in the target language in situations relating to their personal lives. In addition, students will be introduced to the concept of learner autonomy in language learning. They are expected to spend time on self-study to prepare for sessions and to review and consolidate work done during sessions.

COURSE RATIONALE:

This course will give students the opportunity to begin the study of one of the languages spoken in the Caribbean region. The purpose of this course is to provide students with the foundation necessary to become independent language learners. Students will become more familiar with the basic learning strategies available to support them in this endeavor.

LETTER TO THE STUDENT

Dear Student,
Welcome to your first semester of Spanish with the CLL! It is hoped that you are here because you have a clear interest in the Spanish language and Hispanic culture. We hope we can help you develop your language skills as well as motivate you to expand your cultural knowledge and your ability to be an independent learner. Remember to have your textbook and dictionary for each session.

For those enrolled in remote classes, we wish to remind you that learning a language is a social experience, which usually involves verbal and non-verbal communication. When teaching and learning remotely, it is even more important that we ensure that both types of communication can be had, allowing for that human element in every session. Therefore, in as much as your circumstances allow, we would like to encourage you to turn your camera on during the sessions so that your tutor and classmates can interact with you.

We hope you enjoy this educational experience that begins today!
Warm regards,
Your tutor

It is unacceptable to copy responses from another classmate for any assignment or copy a body or part of text from translation programmes. Should copying occur, the student(s) involved will either lose a significant number of points on their assignment or receive a grade of zero for the task.

It also sensitises participants to some aspects of Hispanic culture. The course will place special emphasis on developing communicative skills (listening and speaking). Jot down any questions you may want to research or ask the tutor. This is also the time you take to complete your assignments. It is also important to read up on what you have learnt and practise with a partner, perhaps someone from your class or another class, but at your level.

Preparation time: 2 hours per week. Have a look at the course outline and review or research the material for the upcoming session. Make a note of any questions that may arise, after the explanation by the tutor it may be clearer, if not, ask your question.
