COURSE TITLE: LEVEL 1A PORTUGUESE

SEMESTER: I

LEVEL: I

PREREQUISITES: NONE

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This beginners' Portuguese course introduces students to Portuguese and some aspects of Lusophone culture and daily life. Classes are conducted as far as possible in the target language to give students maximum exposure. During this course, students will develop an ability to communicate in basic Portuguese in day-to-day situations relating to their personal lives.

Students of this course are not required to have any prior, formal academic knowledge of the language. The course is designed to develop the learners' communicative, linguistic, and intercultural competences. To this end, the focus will be on the development of the four predominant skills involved in language learning (speaking, listening, reading and writing). Students will be introduced to various Portuguese language and culture points throughout the semester. Upon completion of this course, students should have the knowledge and skills and demonstrate the attitudes expected at Level A1 of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) <https://bit.ly/1SrYDpO> in Reading, Writing, Listening and Speaking.

There are four (4) hours of class per week over the semester. In addition, students are expected to spend an additional four (4) hours in independent study to review and consolidate work done in class.

Students will be guided in a way that will make them take responsibility for their own learning as they slowly gain autonomy in their language-learning experiences. Their tutor, using the course textbook with accompanying teaching resources, films or documentaries, as well as web-based resources, will provide them with the needed scaffolding to stimulate their language learning.

COURSE RATIONALE:

The aim of this course as every other language course at the CLL is to enable students to participate in the target language at the particular level. It is designed for persons who are interested in interacting with Portuguese-speaking people in a way that would permit them to pursue social and professional goals in the Lusophone world. Attention is therefore given to studying the culture as well as the use of the language. This course establishes a foundation that will allow students to continue their studies in Portuguese. Upon successful completion of this course, students will be eligible to begin Level 1B Portuguese.

LETTER TO THE STUDENT

Dear Student,

Welcome to the Level 1A Portuguese class this semester. You have the opportunity to learn one of the world's major languages which is spoken by over 230 million people. Portuguese is also one of Trinidad and Tobago's heritage languages. Together we will have a busy semester filled with a variety of interesting language activities.

You should plan to spend as much time in independent study as you spend in class. Much of your success in this class lies in your own hands, because our teaching strategy aims at making you an autonomous learner who takes full charge of your own learning.

As this course will be taught remotely, we wish to remind you that learning a language is a social experience, which usually involves verbal and non-verbal communication. When teaching and learning remotely, it is even more important that we ensure that both types of communication can be had, allowing for that human element in every session. Therefore, in as much as your circumstances allow, we would like to encourage you to turn your camera on during the sessions so that your tutor and classmates can interact with you.

Learning a new language may seem challenging at times but persevere. Feel free to ask for help. You may be pleasantly surprised at how much you can learn in thirteen (13) weeks.

I wish you a fruitful and rewarding language learning experience with us this semester.

Enjoy the experience!

Warm regards,
Your tutor

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The best way to develop and improve your language skills is to always use your own words and draw on your knowledge to complete the tasks assigned. It is unacceptable to copy responses from another classmate for any assignment or copy a body or part of text from translation programs. Should copying occur, the student(s) involved will either lose a significant number of points on their assignment or receive a grade of zero for the task.

COURSE EVALUATION:

Summative evaluation will be conducted using The UWI’s SECL System. The CLL will disseminate a mid- and end-of-semester student feedback questionnaire.

TEACHING/LEARNING STRATEGIES:

Interactive sessions: While some of the class will involve direct teaching, language classes are not lecture-type classes, but sessions requiring the active participation of all learners. Classes will therefore be highly interactive with teachers using and encouraging the use of the target language.

Use of target language: A defining characteristic of a modern communicative language programme is the use of the target language as a gateway to the study of the societies and cultures in which it is used. Students will be expected to recognise and use Portuguese in a way which is consistent with the competence of an A1 learner.

Development of learner autonomy: An explicit expectation of language students is a measure of learner autonomy and responsibility for the development of their language competence. This autonomy will be guided and developed alongside their classroom learning. At this level, for example, students are encouraged to develop and apply appropriate language-learning strategies to support communication in Portuguese. Students' learning experience will usually involve exposure to various forms of language learning technology, both in and out of class.

Collaborative work: Finally, students will be expected to work in cooperative and collaborative ways with an attitude of mutual consideration and respect towards their peers.

Synchronous Online and Face-to-Face Sessions

These sessions include but are not limited to:

- Group work and group discussions
- Interviews and role plays
- Vocabulary and grammar drills
- Use of recordings
- Exercises from the textbook
- Online exercises and quizzes
- Discussions on pertinent cultural aspects of the language

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Attendance is compulsory, not only because students may be debarred from Test 2 if they are present for fewer than 75% of the classes, but also because language learning is incremental. Students need to work at their language learning regularly, both in class and out of class to consolidate what they have learnt.

Here are a few tips for studying for this course:

- Use all the resources at your disposal—your peers, your teachers and online materials to help you improve and build your confidence.
- Set small achievable goals for each week of the course.
- Review your work and assess yourself on a weekly basis, so that you do not become overwhelmed by having to revise too much material at any one time.
- Remember to spend some time on all the skills.
- Listen to Portuguese music and watch movies in Portuguese much as possible.

GRADING SYSTEM:

The following is The UWI's mark scheme:
