Developing Oral Communication Skills in the Foreign language Classroom

WORKSHOP

23 - 24 August, 2018
9:00 am -12:00 pm | 2:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Cost:  Early bird registration $1,500 (until July 20, 2018)
      Regular registration $1,700 (until August 3, 2018)
      (Cost includes material)

TARGET AUDIENCE: Persons teaching French and Spanish as Foreign Languages

- Revise and reconceptualise perceptions about developing communicative skills in a foreign language
- Reflect and share your experiences about teaching a foreign language
- Get exposed to current theories on second and foreign language teaching methodologies
- Practice your oral skills interacting solely in the foreign language with native speakers and other foreign language teachers

Course description:
This workshop seeks to familiarize participants with different approaches to develop and assess oral communication skills (Listening and speaking) in the foreign language classroom. Guide teachers in the process of articulating the objectives of the regional examinations CSEC/CAPE or international syllabi (CEFRL) with the course objectives.

Practical activities delivered in the foreign language by native Spanish/French lecturers, experts in Foreign Language Teaching Methodologies

Pre-registration required.

For registration and more information contact:
Department of Modern Languages and Linguistics,
The UWI St. Augustine
1(868) 662-2002 exts. 83868 / 84047

Robert Baird: Robert.Baird@sta.uwi.edu
Paola Palma: Paola.Palma@sta.uwi.edu
Mathilde Dallier: Mathilde.Dallier@sta.uwi.edu