

Calling all Level II and III
undergraduate students!

Choose an ELECTIVE COURSE from the DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

Deepen your understanding of your discipline with the following elective courses

For students in the Faculty of Social Sciences, Department of Economics

Caribbean Economic History

Code(s): HIST 2005

Semester(s): 1

Did you know that the roots of Caribbean economic history go deeper than sugar and tobacco? Explore the economic history of the Caribbean, starting with the indigenous economy and ending with an analysis of the Caribbean in an increasingly globalised world. Dr Gelien Matthews is your guide.

Capitalism & Slavery

Code(s): HIST 3601

Semester(s): 2

Here's your chance to debate (or debunk?) Dr Eric Williams's seminal work. Examine its content as well as the context in which it was written and the consequences of its publication with Dr Jerome Teelucksingh.