

DLS MPhil/PhD students' research

Quarterly Digest #1: April 2022

What's new?

See below for the latest publications, conference participations, awards and other achievements in the period January – March 2022.

01

Renoir Auguste, PhD Environmental Biology

- ❖ Jowers, MJ et al. (2022) Ecology, conservation status, and phylogenetic placement of endemic Pristimantis frogs (Anura: Craugastoridae) in Trinidad and Tobago and genetic affinities to northern Venezuela. Population Ecology.
<https://doi.org/10.1002/1438-390X.12107>
- ❖ Jowers, MJ et al. (2022) The Terrific Skink bite force suggests insularity as a likely driver to exceptional resource use. Scientific Reports 12, 4596.
<https://doi.org/10.1038/s41598-022-08148-6>
- ❖ Completed an online training course in identifying and delineating Key Biodiversity Areas (KBA) – certificate awarded

02

Farrah Mathura, MPhil Biochemistry

- ❖ Submitted thesis for examination in March

