

The IGDS and the Break the Silence (BTS) End Child Sexual Abuse campaign mourns the loss of Mary Moonan, a long-time collaborator and friend, beginning with the initial BTS action research project in 2008.

At that time, the organisation she took under her wings —ChildLine— was connected to our BTS research collaborator, the T&T Coalition Against Domestic Violence (CADV). ChildLine became an indelible component of the Break the Silence Campaign.

ChildLine was an active member of the Break the Silence Network. During the last few weeks, Mary worked with the IGDS to revise the copy for the hand-painted walls along the highway. We will miss her enduring commitment to addressing violence against women and children. She has left a formidable organisation which we hope will go from strength to strength.

Our condolences go out to her family, friends, collaborators, staff and volunteers of ChildLine.

In memory of our friend

Mary Moonan

The IGDS and the Break the Silence (BTS) End Child Sexual Abuse campaign mourns the loss of Mary Moonan, a long-time collaborator and friend, beginning with the initial BTS action research project in 2008.

At that time, the organisation she took under her wings — ChildLine— was connected to our BTS research collaborator, the Coalition Against Domestic Violence (CADV) T&T. ChildLine became an indelible component of the Break the Silence Campaign.

ChildLine was an active member of the Break the Silence Network. During the last few weeks, Mary worked with the IGDS to revise the copy for the BTS-ChildLine Hotline hand-painted walls along the Churchill Roosevelt Highway at St Augustine. We will miss her enduring commitment to addressing violence against women and children. She has left a formidable organisation which we hope will go from strength to strength.

Our condolences go out to her family, friends, collaborators, staff and volunteers of ChildLine.
