

How can I maximize my potential?

The Economic Partnership Agreement (EPA) has been implemented, what is your next step?

In four weeks, you can maximize your business and services potential by registering for the upcoming Professional Training Programme.

The Shridath Ramphal Centre, University of the West Indies, is again offering the annual 4-Week Professional Training Programme in International Trade Policy: Implementing the Economic Partnership Agreement (EPA), which will run from June 08 – July 03, 2009 at the Cave Hill Campus, in Barbados.

This programme is targeting private and public sector employees and other persons who are involved in International Trade or related services areas. The successful applicants will be able to acquire the skills needed to aid the region in its international trade negotiations.

Application forms will be available from March 1, 2009 and may be downloaded from www.shridathramphalcentre.org

Persons can also register for the following individual modules:-

- Introduction to the International Trading System, the WTO and EPA Agreements
- The Caribbean Single Market & Economy & the EPA
- Market Access and Services Issues
- Trade Related Issues, Negotiations Strategies & Techniques

The cost of the programme is US $2,500.00 (Bds $5,000.00). Individual modules are US $1,000.00 (Bds $2,000.00) each.

Further information can be obtained by contacting the Shridath Ramphal Centre at:

Telephone: (246) 417-4806/4807

Fax: (246) 417-4058/425-1348

E-mail: src@cavehill.uwi.edu/mitp@cavehill.uwi.edu

