

Workshop on Political Anthropology in the Caribbean

Funded by the Campus Research and Publications Fund and the Department of Literary, Cultural and Communication Studies,
The University of the West Indies, St. Augustine

Art: Guerrero, Antonio. "José Martí, el gran poeta (1853-1895)"
Mixed media on paper
©2013 Antonio Guerrero

Lecture Theatre B
Teaching and Learning Complex
The University of the West Indies
St. Augustine
June 11-12, 2015

Thursday, 11 June 2015

9.00-9.30	meet & greet
9.30-9.50	Martin Holbraad (UCL) Asceticism and the Formation of Revolutionary Selves
9.50-10.30	Discussion
Coffee
11.00- 11.20	Gabrielle Hosein (UWI) Feminist Approaches to the Anthropology of Caribbean Citizenship, or what Caribbean Feminist Anthropology does with Blind Men and an Elephant
11.20-11.50	Tyehimba Salandy (UWI) Contradictions of Independence: Colonialities, Epistemic Contestations and Alternative Narratives in Trinidad and Tobago
11.50-12.30	Discussion
Lunch
13.30-13.50	N. Fadeke Castor (TAMU) Spiritual Citizenship as Spiritual Praxis in Trinidad Orisha/Ifá
13.50-14.10	Josiah Olubowale (UWI): The Citizenship of Death: Oriša Funeral Rituals in Trinidad
14.10-15.00	Discussion
17:00	screening of Bruce Paddington's Forward Ever: The Killing of a Revolution at the Film Building
19.30	Dinner at the University Inn

Friday, 12 June 2015

9.00- 9.20	Erica Caple James (MIT) Fetishizing Haitian Independence: Race, Stereotypes, and the Biopolitics of Revolution
9.20-9.50	Rhoda Bharath (UWI) Third Force or Farce: Mixed Identities, Marginal Voters and Political Agency
9.50-10.30	Discussion
Coffee
11.00-11.20	Dylan Kerrigan (UWI) Militarisation and Insecurity in the Caribbean: A View from Urban Trinidad
11.20-11.50	Ryan Jobson (Yale) Seeing Like a Failed State: Infrastructure, Corruption, and Democracy in Trinidad and Tobago
11.50-12.30	Discussion
Lunch
13.30-13.50	Maarit Forde (UWI) Space, Boundaries, and Civic Engagement: Locating the Public Sphere in Urban Trinidad
13.50-14.10	Rhoda Reddock (UWI) "Up Against a Wall": Muslim Women's Struggle to Reclaim Masjid Space in Trinidad and Tobago
14.10-15.00	Discussion
15.00-16.00	Don Robotham (CUNY): comments
19.30	Dinner at Veni Mange