About the	The Academy for International Business Officials (AIBO) is an educational and training

Organizer	institution directly under the Ministry of Commerce of the People’s Republic of China. Established in 1980, AIBO is located in Changping District, Beijing, about 30 kilometers from Beijing Capital International Airport. It boasts comprehensive infrastructure to provide services such as accommodation, catering, training and meetings for trainees. One of the main responsibilities of AIBO is to implement human resources development and cooperation projects, especially training courses for officials. The Academy serves as the main base for China's foreign aid training, offering both off-line and on-line training in China and overseas. Backed by the Ministry of Commerce and in close cooperation with China’s top think tanks, research institutes and universities, AIBO brings together a large number of China’s top experts and scholars to provide intellectual support for foreign aid training. It has developed a number of high-quality foreign aid training projects in the fields of trade and investment, international economic cooperation, governance and public management, which have proved to be fruitful. Since 1998, AIBO has successfully held over 2,000 training sessions for officials from developing countries (including 131 ministerial seminars), benefiting nearly 70,000 participants from other developing countries around the world. AIBO will adhere to the guidance of Xi Jinping Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era, and take the important concepts, including a community with a shared future for mankind, pursuing the greater good and shared interests, and sincerity, real results, amity, good faith, mutual benefit and inclusiveness, as strategic guidance and fundamental principles to be followed. It will facilitate the joint efforts in implementing major initiatives such as the “the Belt and Road” Initiative and the Global Development Initiative, and continue to help developing countries accelerate their development by sharing China's experience and programs.
About the Project	Project Background: At present, the global economic competition pattern is undergoing profound changes, and scientific and technological development is incubating new revolutionary breakthroughs. Countries around the world are accelerating their deployment to promote the rapid development of emerging industries such as energy conservation and environmental protection, new energy, information, and biology. If developing countries want to occupy an advantageous position in future international competition, they must accelerate the cultivation and development of emerging industries, master core technologies and related intellectual property rights, and enhance their independent development capabilities. China has accumulated certain experience in emerging industries and is willing to share it with “The Belt and Road” countries and carry out exchanges and cooperation in this field with them. Training Purpose: The Chinese government holds this seminar to share China's development experience in emerging industries, cultivate talents in emerging industries for "The Belt and Road" countries, and enhance their independent development capabilities. At the same time, we will explore cooperation with the countries along “The Belt and Road” in the field of emerging industries and deepen friendly relations between each other. Training Content: The seminar topics mainly cover China's national conditions, global development initiatives and the community with a shared future for mankind, the governance philosophy of Chinese leaders, macro-analysis of the advantages of emerging industries, the history

	and characteristics of the development of the information industry, the development trend of the bio-pharmaceutical industry, the coordinated development of emerging industry technology chains and industrial chains, and financial support for the development of emerging industries. Method: The seminar will invite experts in the relevant fields to give themed lectures according to the topics. We will also organize discussions and exchanges between trainees and experts, as well as among trainees. Additionally, we will organize trainees to visit and exchange experiences at relevant institutions and companies in Beijing and other cities. (The above is a preliminary schedule, and may be adjusted according to the actual situation. The final version will be provided upon arrival in China.)
Notes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Please prepare your passport, Chinese visa and third-party transit country visa (if necessary) before coming to China. 2. If participants cannot depart on time due to special circumstances, or if there is a flight delay during the transfer, please contact the Economic and Trade Office or the organizer in time and inform the latest flight No. and time of arrival in Beijing so that we can arrange pick-up for you. 3. In principle, it is not allowed for individuals to change their tickets to China. If you really need to do so, please contact the Business Office and follow the procedures to change your ticket. Participants who change their tickets without consent will be notified to the Chinese embassy and the costs and responsibilities therefore incurred shall be borne by yourself. 4. After picking up the luggage, please wait patiently at the international arrival exit (or domestic arrival exit) and the organizer will pick you up with a pick-up board with your name on it. If waiting for more than 15 minutes, you can communicate with the organizer by phone. 5. In case of lost baggage so you need to register the loss procedure with the airline, please first communicate with the organizer to confirm the baggage delivery location and then fill in the registration form. 6. Dress code: Participants should pay attention to the weather conditions during the seminar and bring appropriate clothes. Participants should wear formal clothes (national costumes are also acceptable) for important activities in the seminar.
