

Introducing the Champions of Quality

Our Quality Community

“With 73 Champions and Co-Evaluators spanning most faculties, units and support services, we’ve built a network that reflects the full life of the campus.”

On October 14, 2025, we welcomed the following Quality Champions and Co-Evaluators:

- 29 Quality Champions
- 49 Co-Evaluators (6 of whom are also Quality Champions)

What Do Quality Champions and Co-Evaluators do?

Quality Champions and Co-Evaluators help bring the University's Quality Policy to life. They work across campus to ensure that quality is a shared practice and becomes part of our culture.

- Why It Matters

Quality must be embedded in all our activities, including teaching, research, innovation and support services, so that all stakeholders can have confidence in the university's outputs and outcomes.

- Where it Applies

Applies to all campuses, departments and units; academic, administrative, technical and support.

Our champions come from the following faculties, departments, units and support centres:

- Bursary
Mrs. Carolyn Gooding (Senior Financial Manager – Student Accounts and Receivables)

BUILDING A CULTURE OF CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT

Improvement isn't periodic. It's ongoing.
It's about asking:
What did we learn?
What can we do better?
And then doing it.
