HALL OF RESIDENCE

OVERVIEW

Freedom Hall (formerly Milner Hall) is a co-ed Hall of Residence at the St. Augustine Campus of the University of the West Indies. Freedom Hall is very accessible both from campus internally and externally. The Hall borders the campus on the north-east and is within five minutes walking to all campus' facilities. The two main towns in close proximity to the Hall are: Curepe on the west and Tunapuna on the east. Both are within 10-15 minutes' walk from the Hall.

Brief History:

Freedom Hall is the oldest of the Halls of Residence at the UWI St. Augustine campus. Originally named Milner Hall, it has been in existence for over 75 years and has been the home of many regional and international students. It has contributed immensely to their academic and social development. Freedom Hall was part of the original Imperial College of Tropical Agriculture that was acquired by the University of the West Indies in 1960. It was subsequently enlarged in the 90s with an increased capacity of 330 students, in 2018 the University's Finance and General Purposes Committee approved the renaming to Freedom Hall.

ROOMS

The Hall comprises five blocks. Present configuration provides for an Old Wing and a New Wing. The Old Wing comprises four blocks; A male only undergraduate block (62 spaces- double occupancy); A female only undergraduate block (62 spaces- double occupancy) and 1 block (30 spaces- single occupancy) for both male and female senior undergraduates. The fourth block is the Postgraduate Flats (Four Bedroom Apartments- single occupancy) for males and females- 20 spaces. The new Wing is housed in in one block for males and females. The Ground, First and Second Floors house undergraduate students (124 spaces- double occupancy) and the third floor houses Postgraduate students (27 spaces- single ensuite). The Hall is fully equipped with kitchen facilities, Common Rooms and both private and shared bathrooms and toilet facilities.
