HOW TO USE THIS HANDBOOK

The Faculty Handbooks (also known as Faculty Booklets) are available on the Campus website in PDF format at <http://sta.uwi.edu/faculty-booklet-archive>. The Handbooks include:

- Relevant Faculty Regulations – e.g. Admission Criteria, Exemptions, Progression, GPA, Leave of Absence, etc.
- Relevant University Regulations including the Plagiarism Regulations and Declaration Forms
- Other Information on Co-Curricular courses, Language courses and Support for Students with physical and other disabilities or impairments.
- Programme Descriptions and Course Listings which include the list of courses to be pursued in each programme (degrees, diplomas and certificates), sorted by level and semester; course credits and credits to be completed for each programme – majors, minors and specials.
- Course Descriptions which may include details such as prerequisites and methods of assessment.

Students should note the following:

The Regulations and Syllabuses issued in the Faculty Handbooks should be read in conjunction with the following University Regulations:

- The Postgraduate Regulations and Syllabuses should be read in conjunction with the University Regulations contained on the Postgraduate Admissions website and the Board for Graduate Studies and Research Regulations for Graduate Certificates, Diplomas and Degrees \(with effect from August 2018\) and any subsequent amendments thereof.

Progress through a programme of study at the University is governed by Faculty Regulations and University Regulations. Should there be a conflict between Faculty Regulations and University Regulations, University Regulations shall prevail, where appropriate.

LEGAL NOTICE – PROGRAMME & COURSES

1. Notwithstanding the contents of Faculty Handbooks, Course Outlines or any other course materials provided by the University, the University reserves the right at any time to altogether withdraw, alter or modify its programmes or courses and/or vary its modes or methods of teaching, delivery and assessment of its programmes or courses, as deemed necessary in the following circumstances:
 - (a) As a result of any changes imposed by national laws, legislation or governmental regulations or orders made from time to time;
 - (b) In response to the occurrence of a force majeure event, including but not limited to, war (whether declared or not), riots, civil disorder, epidemics, pandemics, quarantines, earthquakes, fire, explosions, storms, floods or other adverse weather conditions, strikes, lockouts or other industrial action, confiscation or any other action or authority by governmental or regulatory agencies or acts of God;
 - (c) In the event of an emergency where there is risk to life and property;
 - (d) Where the exigencies of the circumstances require such action to be taken by the University.

DISCLAIMER – PRIZES & AWARDS

In the case where Faculty/Student Prizes or Awards may be listed, the Faculty does not bind itself to award any or all of the listed prizes/awards contained herein or its stated value and reserves the right to modify or altogether remove certain prizes/awards as described in either or both the electronic and printed versions of the Faculty Handbook.

FACULTY DISCLAIMER

This booklet gives information on Courses offered in the Faculty of Law at the St. Augustine Campus of The University of the West Indies (Trinidad and Tobago). Given the Cross-Campus nature of the Postgraduate Diploma in Law and the LLM, some courses may be offered by Mona or Cave Hill Campuses.

THE UNIVERSITY RESERVES THE RIGHT TO MAKE SUCH CHANGES TO THE CONTENTS OF THIS PUBLICATION AS MAY BE DEEMED NECESSARY.

Students should consult the Dean's office where clarification is required.

These regulations govern the programmes of study for all students entering in 2024/2025. Students who started programmes in previous years are governed by the regulations in force in their year of entry which can be found online at <https://sta.uwi.edu/law/academics-admissions>.

DISCLAIMER:

The information in this booklet is accurate at time of publication. Subsequent publications may therefore reflect updated information. Students should consult their Dean where clarification is required.

THE MISSION OF THE FACULTY OF LAW

The Faculty of Law, St. Augustine, the University of the West Indies, in communion with its counterparts at Mona and Cave Hill, has as its principal mission, the provision of high quality legal education, cultivating in the prospective law graduate the art of critical thought and reasoned exposition as they apply to the growth and functioning of the legal systems in the Commonwealth Caribbean and to the advancement of a more just and humane West-Indian society. The Faculty of Law is an integral part of the regional development strategy and aims to facilitate this developmental purpose by providing a rich intellectual academic foundation in law for legal practitioners. A collateral purpose of the Faculty of Law, St. Augustine, is to engage in legal research and publication to contribute to a high calibre worldwide jurisprudence and more specifically, further the cause of building an indigenous jurisprudence. The Faculty also aims to enhance continuing legal education in the region and to elevate the standard of public debate and education on issues of relevance to the community that it serves.

In support of these objectives, the Faculty of Law, St. Augustine is committed to:

- deepening the intellectual and humanistic content of the law curriculum to ensure that the student derives a critical understanding of legal concepts, and a solid academic foundation for the practice of law or for the pursuit of a career in any other field;
- the undertaking of fundamental enquiries in collaboration with relevant disciplines into the adequacy of existing laws to meet the developmental needs of our societies;
- the organisation and pursuit of research through the publication of books, monographs, internationally recognised journals, reviews and bulletins to meet the need for critical appraisals of current legal developments in both case and statute law;
- the thorough examination and scholarly exposition of current West Indian Law and West Indian Legal history;
- the provision of services to regional Governments pursuing legal and constitutional reform;
- the provision of intellectual support through research and training essential for the successful operation of the Caribbean Single Market and Economy (CSME) and the Caribbean Court of Justice;
- the provision of continuing legal education programmes for practising attorneys, civil servants, social workers, police officers, teachers and the general public;
- the provision of advanced training in law through the development of postgraduate programmes in such critically needed areas as Legislative Drafting, Corporate and Commercial Law and Public Law;
- the enhancement of the Faculty's ability to serve as an intermediary in the delivery of special programmes, workshops or projects that are funded through international agencies.

INTRODUCTION

The Faculty of Law was established at The University of the West Indies in 1970, then based at the Cave Hill Campus. Its primary objective is to provide for an academic qualification which is a compulsory prerequisite to professional legal training for lawyers in the Commonwealth Caribbean. However, the traditional basic legal skills of concise and pertinent oral argument, systematic and relevant presentation of essential issues, clarity and precision of written opinions and detached and balanced judgment are also useful and reliable skills for other professions such as the Civil and Police Service, Accountancy, Banking and Commerce.

The Faculty of Law offers both undergraduate and postgraduate programmes. The undergraduate programme is offered only to students from territories which contribute to the Faculty. The programme is divided into 3 parts - Part I -III are offered at the St. Augustine, Cave Hill and Mona Campuses and also at the College of the Bahamas. Part I is offered at the Turkeyen Campus of the University of Guyana.

Graduate studies in the Faculty lead to the Graduate Diploma, the LLM, and MPhil and PhD. The LLM. is awarded on the basis of coursework and an optional research paper. It is offered in the areas of Corporate and Commercial Law; Legislative Drafting; and Public Law. The Legislative Drafting option is open only to members of the legal profession who are specifically nominated by their Governments.

The MPhil and PhD. by research are available to suitably qualified candidates.

Full details on these programmes are contained in the St. Augustine Faculty's Graduate Handbook, the Faculty of Law office and the website <https://sta.uwi.edu/law/academics-admissions>.

DEAN'S MESSAGE

It gives me great pleasure to welcome all new students and continuing postgraduate (PG) students to the Faculty of Law at the University of the West Indies, St. Augustine Campus. This academic year promises to be an exciting and transformative journey in legal education. You are now part of a distinguished community of academic scholars, legal practitioners, and fellow students dedicated to the pursuit of justice, the rule of law, and the advancement of knowledge.

Beyond the classroom, the Faculty of Law offers a wealth of opportunities to broaden your experience and numerous ways to apply your learning in real-world contexts and contribute to the community. At the Faculty we continue to develop several continuing legal education and professional development short courses and opportunities that will benefit our post graduate students. Each year we host a series of conferences, seminars, research and publications in the areas of energy law, human rights, sports law, intellectual property, etc. Our current PG students can benefit from these various activities. Most of the events are free and open to the public. The events are held in person, virtual (online) or hybrid (in person and online). As you continue to excel in your legal education, we encourage you to make full use of all of these legal education activities that form an integral part of the rich learning experience offered by the Faculty of Law at the St Augustine campus.

The Faculty of Law has a long tradition of excellence and training distinguished legal scholars to serve the Caribbean region. The Faculty of Law at the UWI St Augustine Campus boasts an impressive and extensive network of past and present students that spans the entire Commonwealth Caribbean region and beyond. We are immensely proud of our alumni who occupy many of the senior offices in government and the legal profession and who continue to give outstanding service to the region. The skills you will develop during your postgraduate studies at the Faculty of Law will enrich your lives and enhance your career.

The St. Augustine Faculty of Law has an outstanding team of academic and administrative support staff. We work diligently to ensure that the Faculty offers quality learning experience and contribute to the development of the region through research and publications. Our administrative staff have extensive professional experience in dealing with student matters and they are here to support you during your studies. I encourage you all to make the most of the opportunities you have to benefit from our academic staff and administrative support staff, from their experience and expertise.

Remember, the path you have chosen is both challenging and rewarding. It will require dedication, perseverance, and a commitment to excellence. But rest assured, you are not alone on this journey. Your peers, professors, and the entire faculty are here to support you every step of the way.

I wish you every success in your studies and look forward to seeing the remarkable things you will accomplish during your time here.

Changes to the Registration Process for New GPA Students

With the introduction of the GPA system in 2021/2022, we will have two categories of students (new GPA and continuing/legacy (non-GPA) registering for the same courses. The difference will be reflected in the course registration number (CRN) for each course.

When registering for courses, you will see two sets of CRN codes – one for continuing (non-GPA) students (LSA), and another for new students registering under the GPA system (LSG). All other course information is the same. Only the CRNs are different.

Please pay careful attention and use the codes that correspond with your status as either a new or continuing student.

The Banner registration system has been set up to deal with this duality, and once grades are input via the Banner Software, GPA is calculated automatically.

For more on the registration process and to see the updated CRN codes and instructions, download the Online Registration Guide.

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

The official regulations handbook for all Graduate Diplomas and Degrees is found online at <http://sta.uwi.edu/faculty-booklet-archive>. Students should familiarise themselves with the regulations, a few of which are highlighted here, and also note the following administrative information:

Electives

Not all programme electives are offered every academic year and students are required to select from those on offer.

Registration

Every student is required to register within the first week of every semester until his/her degree has been awarded. Changes in registration are permitted to the end of the third week of the semester.

Registration is a two-part process:

1. The selection of courses on-line through St. Augustine post graduate registration website; and
2. The payment to the Bursary of all fees generated.

Re-registration for Thesis/Research Paper/Practicum

The requirement to register every semester continues while students are doing and writing up the Thesis/Research Paper/Practicum programme element. Note that if a student registers for the Research Paper/Practicum and does not complete this in the first semester of registration, regulations require him/her to re-register every subsequent semester until the Paper/Report has been submitted and graded.

If a student experiences any difficulty registering or re-registering it is his/her responsibility to inform the Graduate Studies Office within the first 3 weeks of the semester by email to postgrad@sta.uwi.edu so that problems can be resolved.

Withdrawal

If at the end of the published registration period our records show that a student has not completed a registration, and that student is not on approved Leave of Absence, he/she will be deemed to have withdrawn from the programme and his/her name will be removed from the student register. To be considered for re-entry to a programme after withdrawal requires re-application to the programme.

Examinations

Unless otherwise stated, examinations for courses in all programmes will be held at the end of the semester in which the courses were taught.

Examination Re-sits or Re-submission of Coursework

Candidates are required to pass in both written examinations and coursework at the first attempt. In respect of any candidate who fails the coursework or written examination at the first attempt, the Board of Examiners would recommend to Campus Committee whether a second attempt should be permitted. If such a recommendation is approved, the student will be awarded a failing grade of FE (failed exam) or FC (failed coursework). This indicates that permission has been granted to re-sit the examination/re-submit coursework for that course the next time it is offered.

In such cases, an Examinations Only registration must be done administratively and students will need to contact the Graduate Studies Office within the first week of the relevant semester by email to postgrad@sta.uwi.edu with details of the course for which they are to be registered. Students must not attempt to self-register for courses where Examination Only or Coursework Only registration have been approved.

This repeat registration attracts a per-credit fee.

Re-taking a Failed Course

Any student who has received a grade F in any course and has been permitted a second opportunity to take that course, is required to take the course in FULL.

Requirement to Withdraw

Any candidate who receives a second failing grade in any compulsory course is required to withdraw from the programme. Applications for re-entry from students who were Required to Withdraw are not normally considered until a period of two years has elapsed.

Distinction for Non-GPA Students

Unless otherwise stated in the regulations of a specific Master's programme the basis for the award of a degree with Distinction is:

- If the programme being followed requires completion of a Research Paper the candidate must pass all courses at the first sitting and the average mark of all courses (excluding the Research paper) must be 70% or more. The candidate must also achieve a mark of 70% or over in the Research Paper.
- If the programme being followed does not require completion of a Research Paper, the candidate must pass all courses at the first sitting, gain an average of 70 % or more overall and achieve Grade A in at least 70% of the courses.

Award of Degrees for GPA Students

New students entering participating taught programmes from the 2021/2022 academic year onwards, as detailed above, will be assessed and awarded degrees based on the Postgraduate GPA grading scale as follows:

GPA	CATEGORY
≥3.70	Distinction
3.30 – 3.69	Merit
2.00 – 3.29	Pass
< 2.00	Fail

Please note that

- the award of degree is based on the overall programme GPA.
- research projects will be considered similarly to other courses, so for a student who does not earn a 'Distinction' in their research project, it is still possible to be awarded a 'Distinction' in their overall programme once their programme GPA is ≥3.70.
- if a student fails or repeats a course, they will still qualify for a 'Distinction' if their overall programme GPA is ≥3.70.
- special requirements apply for the award of 'High Commendation' to professional doctorates (see regulation 14).

Continuing students and new students entering programmes that are currently excluded will be assessed and awarded according to the non-GPA systems included in this booklet for students' convenience.

Where can I get help or find out more?

- Visit www.uwi.edu/postgradgpa to learn more and find answers to frequently asked questions about the postgraduate GPA system.
- To see the full regulations governing the PG GPA, download the GPA Regulations for Graduate Certificates, Diplomas, Taught Masters and Professional Doctorate Programmes.
- For answers to specific questions, contact the Office for Graduate Studies & Research online.

GENERAL FACULTY REGULATION

Requirement to Withdraw

Any candidate in any postgraduate programme in the Faculty of Law who fails two or more courses in any semester will normally be required to withdraw from that programme. Applications for re-entry from students who were Required to Withdraw are not normally considered until a period of two years has elapsed.

The following designations when assigned SHALL NOT be used in the calculations of Grade Point Average:

AB	Absent from an examination for acceptable reasons other than medical problem. No penalty.
AM/XM	Medical submitted for absence from an examination. No penalty.
AMS	Absent Medical Supplemental
CR	Credit
DB	Debarred
DEF	Deferred
EC	Exemptions with Credit
EQ	Examination Query
EX	Exemption Only
FM	Fail/Medical Submitted
FMS	Failed Medical Supplemental
I	Incomplete
IM	Incomplete Medical
IP	In Progress
LW	Late Withdrawal
NFC	Not for Credit
NP	Not Passed- when a student has failed a course taken on a pass/fail basis
NR	Not Reported
P	Pass
PC	Preliminary Credits
V	Audited
NV	Where a student has been permitted to audit a course but has done so unsatisfactorily
W	Withdrawal

GRADUATE PROGRAMMES IN THE UWI

LLM or Postgraduate Diploma

Introduction

The University of the West Indies (UWI) Master of Law and Postgraduate Diploma programmes provide advanced legal education leading to a graduate qualification. It is aimed at legal practitioners, academics, legislative draftspersons, and students of law seeking higher qualifications.

It allows graduate legal education to take place on the St Augustine, Cave Hill, and Mona campuses, and via eLearning technology, regionally and globally. It complements existing law graduate programmes, including the MPhil and the PhD programmes by providing a full suite of specialised graduate courses to help focus research goals.

By using eLearning technologies the UWI LLM and Postgraduate Diploma caters to an international student base, including the wider Caribbean diaspora, and makes legal education at the advanced level more accessible to legal practitioners and others interested in advanced legal study.

Method of Delivery

The UWI LLM and Postgraduate Diploma programmes are offered by way of a combination of multiple modes of delivery (blended learning), which may include 'face to face' instruction, online instruction, teleconferencing and other modes of technological communication. Any postgraduate law course taught by staff from one campus of the UWI will be available through eLearning and/or distance learning modalities to registrants from the other two Campuses which offer the programme.

Entry Requirements

The following persons are eligible to apply for admission into the UWI LLM or Postgraduate Diploma programmes:

- Graduates of The University of the West Indies holding the LLB degree;
- Graduates of The University of the West Indies or of an approved University holding a degree which includes such law subjects as shall satisfy the Board for Graduate Studies and Research;
- Graduates of The University of the West Indies, or of an approved University, who have obtained a professional legal qualification and are eligible for admission to practise in any part of the Commonwealth;
- Persons who having obtained a professional legal qualification, are admitted to practise in any part of the Commonwealth, and who have also been certified as being in practice for a minimum of five years; and
- Graduates of The University of the West Indies or of an approved University, who satisfy the Board for Graduate Studies and Research of their capability to undertake the course of study leading to the award of the UWI LLM or Postgraduate Diploma in Law degrees.

The capacity of applicants to the UWI LLM or the Postgraduate Diploma in Law for the designated course of study will be determined by the admitting campus in accordance with the above criteria, through examining their academic and practical experiences. Letters of reference will also be used to determine suitability.

Students with a third class or pass degree will not normally be admitted to read for the UWI LLM.

Qualifying Examination

Applicants may, at the discretion of the Board for Graduate Studies and Research, be required to take a qualifying examination consisting of at least two papers of a minimum of two hours each, which shall be of a standard equivalent to that of Part II or Part III of the LLB degree examination in order to satisfy the Board of their suitability to undertake the course of degree leading to the UWI LLM.

Language of Instruction

The language of instruction is English and applicants whose native language is not English may be required to take an English Proficiency Test set on behalf of the Board for Graduate Studies and Research.

GENERAL

LLM and POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA

Introduction

Where an eligible candidate has an interest in the wide range of courses and wishes to undertake courses from more than one of the specialisations, he or she can opt for the general LLM.

Candidates selecting this route can select any course with the exception of the Supervised Legislative Drafting Internship.

Method of Delivery

The courses for the General LLM and Postgraduate Diploma will be delivered through blended learning, which may include face to face instruction and/or modern distance learning techniques. Any UWI LLM course taught by staff from one campus of the UWI will be available through eLearning and/or distance learning modalities to registrants from the other two campuses which offer the programme.

Time of Entry

Students can begin the LLM in either Semester 1 or Semester 2.

Course of Study

LLM

Candidates for the UWI LLM Degree must complete thirty-six (36) credit hours of the designated course of study.

With the exception noted above students can select from any courses offered in the UWI LLM programme.

Duration

A student designated as a 'full-time student' will be required to complete the courses within a single academic year.

A full-time student will be required to read for a minimum of two (2) courses and a maximum of four (4) courses in any one semester.

A student designated as a 'part-time student' will be required to read for a minimum of one (1) course or a maximum of two (2) courses per semester.

The summer period of the UWI has been designated as a teaching session for purposes of the UWI LLM degree and Postgraduate Diploma in Law.

Students unable to complete the full UWI LLM are eligible to receive a Postgraduate Diploma in Law upon successful completion of twenty-four (24) credits.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA

Candidates for the UWI LLM Degree must complete twenty-four (24) credit hours of the designated course of study.

With the exceptions noted above students can select from any courses offered in the UWI LLM programme.

*Where a student is awarded the Postgraduate Diploma in Law and is accepted to pursue the LLM, they will be allowed to carry forward 12 credits from the Diploma. This means that the student will have to complete an additional 24 credits to be awarded the LLM degree.

CORPORATE AND COMMERCIAL LAW

LLM and POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA

Introduction

The University of the West Indies (UWI) Master of Laws programme provides advanced legal education leading to a graduate qualification. It is aimed at legal practitioners, academics, legislative draftpersons, and students of law seeking higher qualifications.

The Corporate and Commercial Law programme aims to enhance the ability of lawyers and other qualified persons working in the corporate and financial services sector throughout the region to function more effectively in such areas as Corporate Law, Offshore Financial Law, Corporate Finance, Insolvency Law and Intellectual Property Law. It equips them to address the issues and problems arising in these areas, to serve as legal advisors and policy advisors to clients, including corporate clients and regional Governments, and to be better placed to undertake complex litigation before international tribunals, ordinary courts and the Caribbean Court of Justice (CCJ). The programme lays the foundation for lawyers to contribute to the development of a Caribbean jurisprudence in the area of corporate and commercial law.

Method of Delivery

The courses for the LLM and Postgraduate Diploma in Corporate and Commercial Law will be delivered through blended learning, which may include face to face instruction and/or modern distance learning techniques. Any UWI LLM course taught by staff from one campus of the UWI will be available through eLearning and/or distance learning modalities to registrants from the other two campuses which offer the programme.

Time of Entry

Students can begin the LLM (Corporate and Commercial Law) in either Semester 1 or Semester 2.

Course of Study

LLM

Candidates for the UWI LLM Degree (Corporate and Commercial Law) must complete thirty-six (36) credit hours of the designated course of study.

A minimum of four (4) courses must be selected from the prescribed list of courses below and for their remaining credits, courses can be selected from any courses offered in the UWI LLM programme.

With the permission of the Faculty, candidates may substitute a Research Paper on a topic in Corporate and Commercial Law for one six (6) credit course. Students must apply for approval to register in Law 6900 Research Paper before the end of the second semester or teaching session from the commencement of the programme by the student.

The Research Paper must be completed at the end of the semester following the candidate's second semester or teaching session from date of registration in the course, whether or not the candidate has completed final written examinations for his or her courses.

Failure to complete the Research Paper within the time allotted will result in the award of a Graduate Diploma.

Duration

A student designated as a 'full-time student' will be required to complete the courses within a single academic year. A full-time student will be required to read for a minimum of two (2) courses and a maximum of four (4) courses in any one semester.

A student designated as a 'part-time student' will be required to read for a minimum of one (1) course or a maximum of two (2) courses per semester.

The summer period of the UWI has been designated as a teaching session for purposes of the UWI LLM degree and Postgraduate Diploma (Corporate and Commercial Law).

Students unable to complete the full UWI LLM (Corporate and Commercial Law) are eligible to receive a Postgraduate Diploma (Corporate and Commercial Law) upon successful completion of twenty-four (24) credits, subject to the criteria for the award of the specialisation.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA

Candidates for the UWI postgraduate diploma (Corporate and Commercial Law) must complete twenty-four (24) credit hours of the designated course of study.

A minimum of three (3) courses must be selected from the prescribed list of courses below. The remaining course can be selected from any courses offered in the UWI LLM programme.

*Where a student is awarded the Postgraduate Diploma in Law and is accepted to pursue the LLM, they will be allowed to carry forward 12 credits from the Diploma. This means that the student will have to complete an additional 24 credits to be awarded the LLM degree.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW

LLM and POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA

Introduction

The University of the West Indies (UWI) Master of Laws programme provides advanced legal education leading to a graduate qualification. It is aimed at legal practitioners, academics, legislative draftspersons, and students of law seeking higher qualifications.

The aim of this programme is to enable legal practitioners and other interested persons to gain in-depth knowledge of intellectual property law in the Commonwealth Caribbean and globally. It will do so by introducing them to topics such as patent law, copyright law, trademark law, international intellectual property law, international trade law, competition law, intellectual property law and trade and the management of intellectual property assets.

The World Intellectual Property Organisation (WIPO) has agreed to provide expertise in delivering some of the courses offered. WIPO has also provided input into the design of the programme and the courses to be offered.

Method of Delivery

The courses for the LLM and Postgraduate Diploma in Intellectual Property Law will be delivered through blended learning, which may include face to face instruction and/or modern distance learning techniques. Any UWI LLM course taught by staff from one campus of the UWI will be available through eLearning and/or distance learning modalities to registrants from the other two campuses which offer the programme.

Time of Entry

Students can begin the LLM (Intellectual Property Law) in either Semester 1 or Semester 2.

Course of Study

LLM

Candidates for the UWI LLM Degree (Intellectual Property Law) must complete thirty-six (36) credit hours of the designated course of study.

A minimum of four (4) courses must be selected from the prescribed list of courses below. The remaining two (2) courses may be selected from any courses offered in the UWI LLM programme.

With the permission of the Faculty, candidates may substitute a Research Paper on a topic in Intellectual Property Law for one (1) six-credit course. Students must apply for approval to register in Law 6900: Research Paper before the end of the second semester or teaching session from the commencement of the programme by the student.

The Research Paper must be completed at the end of the semester following the candidate's second semester or teaching session from date of registration in the course, whether or not the candidate has completed final written examinations for his or her courses.

Failure to complete the Research Paper within the time allotted will result in the award of a Graduate Diploma.

PUBLIC LAW

LLM and POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA

Introduction

The subject of public law is central to the practice of good democratic governance and to the success of CARICOM's Single Market and Economy. The Public Law programme aims to provide legal practitioners, magistrates, senior public servants and other qualified persons with advanced training and a deeper understanding of issues in the core subjects of Constitutional and Administrative Law, in addition to others relevant to the regulation of public authorities, so as to enable them to represent their clients more effectively before the courts. The programme also seeks to equip candidates with the capacity to render more enlightened decisions in the discharge of their offices as senior managers of the public service and to give adequate and effective legal and policy advice to governments and other clients. It lays the foundation for the development of a regional jurisprudence in the area of Public Law.

Method of Delivery

The courses for the LLM and Postgraduate Diploma in Public Law will be delivered through blended learning, which may include face to face instruction and/or modern distance learning techniques. Any UWI LLM course taught by staff from one campus of the UWI will be available through eLearning and/or distance learning modalities to registrants from the other two campuses which offer the programme.

LEGISLATIVE DRAFTING

LLM and POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA

Introduction

The Legislative Drafting programme is designed to train lawyers in the skill of drafting legislation to further the regulation of societal affairs. In addition to instruction in the technical skill of drafting 'traditional' legislation, the programme provides the candidates with a basic understanding of treaty drafting and constitution writing. The programme brings greater intellectual depth and breadth to candidates so that they will not only be technically qualified draftspersons but also effective policy advisors to their Governments and other clients. To this end, the programme requires that candidates registered for the Masters (as opposed to the Postgraduate Diploma only) take, in addition to the core course in Legislative Drafting, Public Law I (Advanced Constitutional Law), Public Law II (Advanced Administrative Law), and either: (a) two additional UWI LLM courses, or (b) a single course and to produce a Research Paper, or (c) a single course and to engage in a Supervised Legislative Drafting Internship.

Method of Delivery

The courses for the LLM and Postgraduate Diploma in Legislative Drafting will be delivered through blended learning, which may include face to face instruction and/or modern distance learning techniques. Students are also required to attend the St. Augustine Campus for two to four intensive, residential sessions. Dates for these sessions, each of which may be one to two weeks in duration, will be announced at the beginning of the semester.

Time of Entry

Students can begin the LLM in either Semester 1 or Semester 2. However, it should be noted that the core courses required to achieve the specialism in Legislative Drafting are year-long courses that begin in Semester I.

Course of Study

LLM

Candidates registered for the UWI LLM in Legislative Drafting must complete the following:

OIL, GAS AND ENERGY LAW

LLM and POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA

Introduction

The postgraduate offering in Oil, Gas and Energy Law continues the Faculty of Law's work to pioneer relevant, cutting-edge law courses that would meet the needs of forward-looking nations pursuing dynamic development.

Oil & Gas Law is considered as one of the areas of importance to Trinidad and Tobago and Guyana. The wider Caribbean region is increasingly receptive to energy issues and thus it is envisaged that this initiative will form part of a broader effort for the UWI Faculty of Law to provide continuing legal education at the postgraduate level and to ensure that the Faculty maximises its positive impact on the regional constituents that it serves. The postgraduate programme in Oil, Gas and Energy Law is currently not offered by any other country in the Caribbean region. Hence these courses will attract not only students in Trinidad and Tobago and Guyana but also in the wider region and Latin America as well.

Method of Delivery

The UWI LLM is offered by way of a combination of multiple modes of delivery (blended learning), which may include 'face to face' instruction, online instruction, teleconferencing and other modes of technological communication. Any UWI LLM course taught by staff from one campus of the UWI will be available through eLearning and/or distance learning modalities to registrants from the other two Faculties of Law.

Time of Entry

Students can begin the LLM in either Semester 1 or Semester 2. However, it should be noted that the core courses required to achieve the specialism in Oil, Gas and Energy Law are year-long courses that begin in Semester I.

Course of Study

LLM

Candidates for the UWI LLM Degree must complete thirty-six (36) credit hours of the designated course of study comprised of the four core Oil, Gas and Energy Law six credit courses (LAW 6611, LAW 6612, LAW 6613 and LAW 6614) and any two (2) six-credit courses offered in the UWI LLM programme.

With the exceptions noted above students can select from any courses offered in the UWI LLM programme.

Duration

A student designated as a 'full-time student' will be required to complete the courses within a single academic year.

A full-time student will be required to read for a minimum of two (2) courses and a maximum of four (4) courses in any one semester.

A student designated as a 'part-time student' will be required to read for a minimum of one (1) course or a maximum of two (2) courses per semester.

The summer period of the UWI has been designated as a teaching session for purposes of the UWI LLM degree and Postgraduate Diploma in Law.

Students unable to complete the full UWI LLM are eligible to receive a Postgraduate Diploma in Law upon successful completion of twenty-four (24) credits.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA

Candidates for the UWI PG Diploma must complete twenty-four (24) credit hours of the designated course of study comprised of the following:

(i) Four core, one semester courses in:

LAW 6611 – Oil, Gas and Energy Law (Part 1) – 6 credits

LAW 6612 – Oil, Gas and Energy Law (Part 2) – 6 credits

LAW 6613 – Energy Transitions and International Energy Investments (Part 1) – 6 credits

LAW 6614 – Energy Transitions and International Energy Investments (Part 2) – 6 credits

OR

- (ii) Two of the four core courses (LAW 6611, 6612, 6613 or LAW 6614), and
For their remaining credits, candidates in the UWI PG Diploma in Oil, Gas and Energy Law shall:
- i. select twelve (12) credits worth of courses offered in the UWI PG programme; OR
 - ii. select one (1) six-credit course offered in the UWI PG programme and apply to complete a Research Paper on a topic in Oil, Gas and Energy Law or on such other topic as the Faculty may permit. The Research Paper is worth six (6) credit hours.

*Where a student is awarded the Postgraduate Diploma in Law and is accepted to pursue the LLM, they will be allowed to carry forward 12 credits from the Diploma. This means that the student will have to complete an additional 24 credits to be awarded the LLM degree.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6020

TITLE: E-COMMERCE LAW

CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This module aims to provide the student with an in-depth look at the legal issues surrounding electronic commerce. The course starts looking at the intellectual property issues that arise in the context of e-commerce transactions. It then examines the more traditional legal issues surrounding business in an electronic format, particularly the formal validity of electronic transactions, security and authentication, contract formation and electronic payment systems.

The course then covers consumer issues, such as data protection and privacy. The course also explores various content issues that have arisen in e-commerce including defamation and liability of internet service providers. The course proceeds to analyse in-depth litigation strategies in the shape of online dispute resolution and jurisdiction, and will finish with new legal topics in electronic commerce, including commerce in so-called virtual worlds and open licensing.

The course will focus on aspects of the following:

1. Intellectual Property:
 - (i) Copyright;
 - (ii) Patents;
 - (iii) Trademarks/Passing Off; and
 - (iv) Breach of Confidence.
2. Business and Commerce:
 - (i) Contractual Formation;
 - (ii) Digital Signatures;
 - (iii) Electronic Payments and Consumer Protection;
 - (iv) Data Privacy/Protection; and
 - (v) Conflicts of Laws/Jurisdiction.
3. Content Issues:
 - (i) Computer/Cyber Crime;
 - (ii) Defamation;
 - (iii) Pornography;
 - (iv) Liability of Internet Service Providers;
 - (v) Regulating Telecommunications.

ASSESSMENT

40% Coursework, 60% Final Examination

COURSE CODE: LAW 6130TITLE: COMPARATIVE LABOUR LAW IN A CORPORATE ENVIRONMENT*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: The globalisation process, greatly assisted by technological advances, will present many challenges for labour law. As competition increases, companies will strive to reduce as much as possible the cost of doing business. The likely consequences of this are an increase in lay-offs and redundancies, the flexibilisation of labour and wages, the marginalisation of trade unions and increased pressure on the authorities to roll back the rights won by the workers over the years. In such a context, a clear understanding of the principles governing employment law is critical.

Beyond this however, the philosophy and policies which underlie these principles must be thoroughly analysed if they are to be accorded their true status in the new globalised economy. The course is taught from a Commonwealth Caribbean perspective but draws on comparative sources and international labour standards.

Among the areas examined are:

- Introduction to Labour Law Models and Developments;
- Termination of Employment;
- Occupational Health and Safety;
- New Trends in Industrial Relations and Labour Law;
- Negotiation and Workplace Models;
- Issues of Discrimination;
- Industrial Action - Compulsory and Voluntary Models;
- Successorship;
- Collective Bargaining - Compulsory and Voluntary Models; and
- Labour Law Ideologies and Philosophies.

ASSESSMENT

COURSE CODE: LAW 6150TITLE: GLOBAL HEALTH LAW*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course will be taught jointly by staff from the University of West Indies at St. Augustine and staff from the Global Center for Legal Innovation on Food Environments ("Global Center") at the O'Neill Institute for National and Global Health Law at Georgetown University Law Center.

The course explores the roles that the law, lawyers, and legal institutions play in global health. More specifically, it examines regional and international law and policy that directly or indirectly affect global health, including treaties, regulations, global strategies, and expert guidelines. This course provides a foundation in these instruments, laws and policies, including, but not limited to: the governance of the World Health Organisation, the International Health Regulations, the WHO Framework Convention on Tobacco Control, the Single Convention on Narcotic Drugs of 1961, the International Covenant on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights, and relevant regional instruments of the Inter-American Human Rights System.

This course aims to equip students with:

- Knowledge of the substantive foundations of global health law, including public international law; human rights law; global health governance; and principles of public health law, as well as how these fields of law dialogue to address global health issues;
- Knowledge of the legal issues related to a range of global health challenges, including non-communicable diseases (NCDs), infectious diseases, mental health, narcotics and sexual and reproductive rights; and
- Ability to use various skills relied upon by global health lawyers, including legal research, analysis and writing, strategic thinking, advocacy, and litigation.

The following topics will be discussed in this course:

- Foundations of Global Health Law
- Foundations of Global Health Governance
- Health and Human Rights Law (Right to Health)
- Health and Human Rights Law (Sexual and Reproductive Rights)
- Communicable Diseases and the Law (Law and Infectious Outbreaks)
- Communicable Diseases and the Law (Access to Medication)
- Non-Communicable Diseases and the Law
- Non-Communicable Diseases and the Law (Regulatory Interventions)

COURSE CODE: LAW 6200TITLE: THE MANAGEMENT OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY ASSETS*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: The importance of innovation and intellectual assets management is being more recognised as traditional business models change and the value of companies shift to the ownership, control and exploitation of intangible assets. Although these developments have been taking place at a slower pace in the Caribbean, compliance with international financial standards and the reporting requirements for intangibles, greater merger and acquisition activity, the need to respond to more sophisticated consumers through strong marketing and branding programmes and the drive of regional Governments for innovation and creativity have spurred a changing perspective. Without a doubt there is a need for education for business executives involved in various functions but especially licensing, research and development and business development to ensure there is a well-informed competence in the management of intellectual assets. This need is not centred on a legal framework which is only one dimension, but also speaks to recognising the complicated and compound nature of intellectual asset management which involves various management functions which is the approach of the proposed programme.

The course will introduce students to the issues that lie at the centre of management of intellectual property assets and innovation and technology transfer. Persons who have an interest in knowing more about the business side of intellectual property rights will find this course very useful.

Topics covered:

1. Introduction to Intellectual Asset Management
2. Introduction to Knowledge Management
3. Innovation and Technology Transfer
4. Intellectual Property Ownership (licensing, assignment and distribution basics)
5. Branding, Sponsorship and Merchandising Agreements
6. Intellectual Property Audits and Protection
7. IP Finance: The Valuation and Taxation of Intellectual Assets

COURSE CODE: LAW 6201TITLE: COPYRIGHT LAW (THE PROTECTION OF CREATIVE ASSETS)*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course is designed to develop students' understanding of key principles of copyright law, focusing too on the issues such as copyright infringement in the digital age and the Internet. The student will be introduced the core principles of domestic copyright law, in the context of international principles relating to copyright. The issues will focus on the application of these principles to the problems that developing countries face.

Since copyright law is one of the core intellectual property rights, the focus of protecting such creative assets has implications for our societies because, first, we generate such create assets though our music, folklore etc.; and, second, we are users of these creative assets. An understanding of copyright law from an end-user and creator perspective is therefore critical.

Course Content

1. Introduction
2. Justification for Copyright
3. Basic Copyright Principles
4. Copyright Subject Matter
5. Ownership of Copyright
6. Subsistence of Copyright
7. Infringement of Copyright
8. Permitted Acts and Defences

COURSE CODE: LAW 6202TITLE: TRADE MARK LAW (THE PROTECTION OF MARKETING ASSETS)*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course is designed to develop students' understanding of key principles of trademark law, focusing too on the issues such as trademark infringement in the digital age and the Internet. With the increasing production of counterfeit products that are being generated, and the ease with which they are able to enter the borders of Commonwealth Caribbean countries, it is important that students are introduced to the legal regime for protecting such creative assets. Knowledge about how to protect such assets will enable students to better advise clients about the types of protection that they require and how to enforce their legal rights.

Course Content

1. Introduction
2. Function, history and economics of Trademark protection
3. Registration Process
4. Absolute Grounds for Refusal
5. Relative Grounds for Refusal
6. Exploitation of Trademarks
7. Trademark Infringement

COURSE CODE: LAW 6203TITLE: PATENT LAW (THE PROTECTION OF TECHNOLOGY ASSETS)*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course is designed to develop students' understanding of key principles of patent law and to enable them to apply these to issues that arise in the information and technologically advanced age. The students will examine issues relating to the process for registering a patent, patentability requirements, ownership, infringement and remedies.

With the increasing emphasis in the Commonwealth Caribbean on innovation, it is critical that students are aware of the methods by which their innovations can be protected. The knowledge gained will better enable them to advise persons in respect of not only the process for protecting technology assets but also whether the subject matter is worthy of protection, and what remedies are available to them if infringement occurs.

Course Content

1. Introduction
2. Patenting Process, History & Strategy
3. Patentability: Novelty
4. Patentability: Inventive Step & Sufficiency
5. Patentable Subject Matter: Software & Business Method Inventions
6. Patentable Subject Matter: Biotechnological & Medical Inventions

COURSE CODE: LAW 6205TITLE: INTERNATIONAL TRADE AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course is designed to develop students' understanding of key principles of international trade and intellectual property law. It will first examine the principles of international trade and provide the context for the second part of the course, which will examine the important intellectual property issues that arise in the context of international trade.

Since all the Commonwealth Caribbean countries are members of the World Trade Organisation and therefore signatories to the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights, it is important that students understand the important relationship between the trade in goods and services and intellectual property. This is even more important in light of the intellectual property provisions found in the recently signed EU-Caribbean Economic Partnership Agreement.

Course Content

1. Introduction
2. International intellectual property law
3. Basic principles of Intellectual property law
4. Principles of international trade law and TRIPs
5. Access to medicines and public health

COURSE CODE: LAW 6300TITLE: ADVANCED PUBLIC INTERNATIONAL LAW*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course examines three discrete aspects of Public International Law, namely, the law concerning the use of force in international relations, the law of the sea and the law of state responsibility, including the treatment of foreign direct investment. The main concerns will be (1) to consider the ways in which legal principles and rules influence the decision-making process in international relations, and (2) to examine the extent to which different groups of states, and in particular, developing States, have sought to shape Public International Law to suit their national and group interests. Special emphasis will be placed on the manner in which states have used the United Nations and other multilateral agencies as important arenas for the formulation of treaty rules and for the elaboration of norms of customary international law. Particular attention will also be placed on issues relating to the use of law as an instrument of international development.

ASSESSMENT

This course will be assessed by means of one or more of the following:

- a. A written final examination of three hours duration;
- b. Coursework;
- c. A take home examination.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6310TITLE: CARIBBEAN BUSINESS AND PUBLIC INTERNATIONAL LAW*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: The purpose of this course is to expose for critical examination the relationship between Caribbean business and public international law.

Part I of the course deals with Public International Law which is the system of law which governs inter-state relations. Students will be introduced to the rules of international law that are recognised as being effectively binding obligations by sovereign states and other international persons in their mutual relationships.

Topics include the distinction between public and private international law and the relationship between international law and other areas such as:

1. Movement of persons across borders;
2. International Telecommunications law;
3. Law of the Air;
4. Law of Sea;
5. Human Rights Law; and
6. Environmental Law

Part II of the course looks specifically at the traditional international law areas of strong relevance to businesses. These include state responsibility and national treatment concepts discussed within the Caribbean context of the Revere - OPIC case.

The course also analyses and discusses the legal problems that may arise when considering foreign direct investment in the Caribbean in particular the case of Jamaica and ICSID.

Part III of the course surveys the international and regional trading system. The course addresses various trade regulation regimes affecting the conduct of international trade to and from the Caribbean with a particular focus on the World Trade Organisation (WTO), the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), Anti-dumping measures, TRIMS, TRIPS and Dispute settlement. The student, while being exposed to the international trading system, will focus on Caribbean cases such as The Bananas Case, Foreign Sales Corporation case, OECD Harmful Taxation Competition Initiative and the role of the Caribbean Regional Negotiating Machinery. The course also discusses regional free trade areas such as Free Trade Area of the Americas and an in-depth examination of the CARICOM Single Market and Economy and its constituent document - The Revised Treaty of Chaguaramas.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6330TITLE: ADVANCED PUBLIC INTERNATIONAL TRADE LAW*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course sets out to provide an understanding of the public international law dimension of international trade for the West Indian states who are participating, actually or in contemplation, in the World Trade Organisation (WTO) system, and of the interrelationship between that system and other relevant international trade obligations. The course is to that end subdivided into three parts.

In Part I, two fundamental issues belonging to the context of international trade are considered: the normal concentration of public international law on relations between states at the governmental level rather than among private commercial actors, and the relevance of international law in matters before national courts, the normal for a for business litigation.

In Part II, the traditional international law of investor protection, including its modern development through networks of bilateral agreements and the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) system, is discussed in outline. This is an important complementary topic to WTO law, since WTO law has only limited application to investment. The investment regime aspects of the projected Free Trade Area of the Americas (FTAA) and of CARICOM Single Market and Economy (CSME) are addressed in Part IV, after the study of the WTO system.

Part III constitutes the central content of the course, an examination of the legal machinery and the basic legal concepts of WTO law of trade in goods and trade in services (excluding the intellectual property regime and the detailed customs disciplines). The concentration is on the current state of the law rather than on the issues which are the focus of current negotiations. That current state of the law is, of course, in great measure the product of past negotiations, so greater understanding of that current law nevertheless adds value in training for participation in current negotiations.

Part IV briefly considers the regional trade regimes, the proposed FTAA and the CSME, in their relationship with WTO law.

Specific areas of inquiry under each part include:

PART I: Background issues of international law

1. The distinction between public and private international law
2. The relationship between international law and national law

PART II: International law and investor protection

1. State responsibility and diplomatic protection
2. National treatment as the lowest standard
3. Investor protection agreements (bilaterals, ICSID Convention)

PART III: The World Trade Organisation system

1. Structure of the Marrakesh agreement
2. The Dispute Settlement Understanding (DSU)
3. General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) 1994 and the regime of trade in goods
4. Anti-dumping Agreement
5. Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures
6. Agreement on Safeguards
7. GATT 1994 and the Agreement on Agriculture
8. General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS) and the regime of trade in services
9. General issues in WTO law
10. WTO and environmental law

PART IV: Regional trade agreements

1. GATT Article XXIV and GATS Articles V and V bis (FTAA, CSME, the "WTO-plus" dimension, conflicts of dispute settlement jurisdiction)

The heavy dependence on web-based sources of official documents and decided cases, which can be expected to continue to appear at frequent intervals, argues against the recommendation of a small number of texts for this course. Round the clock access to the internet will provide the basic source of information, with supplementary access to printed periodical materials and works of reference. Detailed reference to the texts of the Marrakesh Agreement, the most recent FTAA Draft Agreement and of the Revised Treaty of Chaguaramas will be required, and copies of those texts will be available for consultation while writing the examination.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6350TITLE: GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES IN PUBLIC PROCUREMENT*PREREQUISITES: COMPLETION OF ALL COURSES*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course provides a broad survey of the regulatory regimes, trade treaties and case law developments that shape public procurement around the world and across the Caribbean. The course will also provide students with practical perspectives on how to advise public institutions and their private sector suppliers on the key considerations that apply to public procurement projects.

Course Content

1. The course is divided into the following ten modules:
2. Statutory Structures Part I will include a survey of statutory governance models including the WTO's Agreement on Government Procurement, the UN Model Procurement Law, the European Procurement Directive, the UK Procurement Regulations, and the American Bar Association Model Procurement Code, as well as model codes from a range of international development banks.
3. Statutory Structures Part II will include a sampling of procurement-related statutory codes from other Commonwealth jurisdictions.
4. Statutory Structure Part III will survey recent procurement-related statutory developments across the Caribbean.
5. Public Audits Part I will include a survey of global public audit reports relating to good governance in procurement including World Bank Country Procurement Assessment Reports, UN procurement reviews, and other public audits from the UK, US, Canada, Australia and New Zealand.
6. Public Audits Part II will focus on public audit reviews from across the Caribbean, including the Jamaican Contract General's Office, the Cayman Islands Auditor General, the Trinidad and Tobago Auditor General and the Barbados Auditor General, along with other audit reports and related newsreel highlights from across the region.
7. Case Law Considerations Part I will include a historical survey of leading precedent setting procurement decisions from across the UK, US and broad selection of Commonwealth jurisdictions from around the world.
8. Case Law Considerations Part II will survey recent procurement case law developments from across the UK, US and a broad selection of Commonwealth jurisdictions from around the world.
9. Case Law Considerations Part III will survey recent procurement case law developments from across the Caribbean.
10. Practical Considerations Part I will synthesise the topics covered in prior modules and provide a general overview of the project governance due diligence practices that apply to project design planning and tendering format selection.
11. Practical Considerations Part II will synthesise the topics covered in prior modules and provide a general overview of the key components for solicitation document drafting including scoping statements, pricing structures and evaluation criteria and procedures.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6402TITLE: LEGAL ASPECTS OF CORPORATE MISCONDUCT*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course is intended to provide an examination of those aspects of corporate misconduct that are rapidly developing and assuming increasing importance globally. The course places a special emphasis on the role of the financial services industry in maintaining stability and integrity in the financial markets.

Topics to be covered will include:

1. The concept of corporate misconduct within the context of the financial services industry;
2. The need to regulate financial intermediaries i.e. banks, insurance companies, investment advisors etc.;
3. The issues relating to underground and parallel financial systems;
4. Money laundering - civil and criminal liability for "those who handle other people's money";
5. Insider Dealing - civil and criminal liability; and
6. Liability under the specific regulations governing the financial services industry, including market manipulation.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6410TITLE: ADVANCED INSURANCE LAW*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Insurance is an increasingly important tool for the management of risk by both private and public enterprises. This course, at an advanced level, is intended to introduce students to the theoretical and practical challenges that face the Insurance Companies or the business of insurance in the Commonwealth Caribbean.

The course traces the historical development of Insurance Law to current trends and challenges facing the Insurance Industry in general and in particular the Commonwealth Caribbean. The course also examines the practical difficulties of companies which engage in "insurance business" as a part of the enterprise but without registering under the relevant Insurance Act thereby escaping the rigours of Insurance legislations and presenting obvious problems for regulators.

The course also examines such theoretical problems encountered by insurance law as:

1. The application of the basic principles of contract formation to Insurance Contracts; and
2. The issue of misrepresentation and non-disclosure.

In addition the course examines principles of insurance law in the context of specific types of insurance including life, indemnity and third party insurance. Other topics covered are insurable interest, the status of the beneficiary, subrogation (double insurance and contribution), policy interpretation, the claims process and the role of the insurance broker.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6420TITLE: CORPORATE GOVERNANCE*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Corporate Governance has emerged on the global agenda in pursuit of proper and efficient practice in the administration of the business entity. The objective is probity in business activity, compliance with law and regulation and the security of reputation and confidence towards the attraction of inward investment.

Corporate Governance focuses at an advanced level, on the principal legal and economic questions facing corporations in light of the recent scandals involving high profile corporations.

Among the topics considered are:

1. The theories of corporate governance and the justification for good governance against the background of recent financial scandals;
2. The allocation of powers within a company vis-a-vis the powers and duties of directors; Corporate Control;
3. Governance of corporate groups and small businesses; The Company and its constituencies i.e. shareholders, creditors etc.; and
4. The role of auditors.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6430TITLE: ADVANCED CORPORATE FINANCE*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Corporate Finance practice concerns itself with the innovative techniques that business persons and lawyers employ to enable companies to maximise profit and to create wealth. Corporate Finance law consists of a body of disparate principles and rules relevant to company financing practice. It is best viewed as the embodiment of the response of the law to the needs and practices of corporate finance. The law must, of necessity constantly adapt itself to new business practices, and new instruments. It is this tension of accommodation required by rapidly developing practices, rules and usages which informs much of corporate finance law.

The course will examine corporate financing mechanisms with specific attention to problem-based strategies and related legal and regulatory frameworks. Course materials represent in general terms the core elements of two of the three major components of the course: Debt Finance and Equity Finance. The third major component of the course relates to company financing from the public. The focus of the course will be primarily on the core concepts of contemporary financing techniques. The selections made for individual seminar topics will reflect this focus.

These include:

1. The concept of capital and financing of Companies;
2. Raising share capital and the capital maintenance doctrine;
3. Corporate self-dealings;
4. Corporate distribution;
5. Concept of equity financing;
6. Loan capital (in particular Debt Financing); and
7. The taxation of companies.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6450TITLE: OFFSHORE FINANCIAL LAW*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: The offshore financial centre has become a significant revenue earner in the Commonwealth Caribbean and being inherently transnational, engages routinely the attention of capital producing nations outside of the region as well as leading international institutions. A unique and dynamic jurisprudence has developed alongside the offshore financial centre. It involves the straddling of several legal disciplines such as the law on trusts, banking, insurance, company law, revenue law, mutual legal assistance and law enforcement. This course addresses several of the complex issues raised in offshore financial law.

Specific areas of inquiry include:

1. An understanding and rationalisation of fundamental legal precepts and characteristics of offshore financial centres;
2. An analysis of the international business company (IBC) and its comparability with traditional company structures;
3. Issues of privacy, particularly in relation to regulating offshore financial centres;
4. Vehicles for mutual legal assistance;
5. An examination of the offshore trust as a hybrid legal concept and the legal challenges facing the offshore trust;
6. Selected conflict of laws issues in offshore financial law;
7. Issues relating to law enforcement and disclosure efforts; and
8. Challenges to the tax function of offshore financial centres.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6460TITLE: COMPETITION LAW IN THE GLOBAL ECONOMY*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: The need to regulate business competition on a global scale has become obvious in the context of the globalised economy, on the one hand, and national or regional approaches to competition matters, on the other. The course will analyse the most important aspects of the competition law and policy of the United States of America, the European Community (EC), and the CARICOM Single Market and Economy (CSME) with a view to identifying internationally acceptable and effective means of ensuring that competition in the globalised economy is free of cartels and free of abuses imposed by dominant firms. The antitrust treatment of mergers and acquisitions will also be examined.

Topics to be covered are:

1. Globalisation and the International Aspects of Antitrust Regulations:
 - a. The Rationale of Trade Liberalisation and of Antitrust Laws;
 - b. Development and the WTO Antitrust Regime;
 - c. Democracy, Accountability and Antitrust Laws;
2. International Cartels:
 - a. Antitrust Enforcement against International Cartels: Trends and Practical Considerations;
 - b. The Fight against Secret Horizontal Agreements in EC Competition Law;
 - c. An Overview of the US Antitrust Enforcement Practices in respect of Cartels;
 - d. Leniency Programmes and the Criminalisation of Cartels Law;
3. Dominant Behaviour:
 - a. Monopolisation and the Abuse of a Dominant Position from the Economic Viewpoint;
 - b. Dominant Behaviour under National or Regional Competition Laws;
4. Mergers and Takeovers in the Multi-Jurisdictional Context
5. International Co-operation in the Enforcement of Competition Law:
 - a. Co-operation between Developed and Developing Countries and Co-operation between Developed Countries

This course aims to: give students the opportunity of examining a wide range of topics which are of great relevance to the development and advancement of fair competition in the globalised economy but which are so controversial, complex and politically sensitive that the international community has not yet been able to achieve any consensus; and ensure that from the commencement of the LLM programme, students become familiar with conducting, recording, rationalising, compiling and presenting their own independent research.

On successful completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Explain and critically evaluate the most controversial topics in antitrust law;
2. Analyse the legal, political and economic content of the topics under consideration;
3. Demonstrate a capacity for thorough research;
4. Utilise a systematic approach to using the multitude of computerised research sources in order to effectively research a legal problem;
5. Assimilate information from a range of sources;
6. Respond to factual and theoretical problems by assessing their legal implications in the context of competition law; and
7. Suggest, argue, report and critically evaluate alternative approaches to such problems.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6470TITLE: ADVANCED INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course aims to challenge students to apply the basic principles and understanding of intellectual property to issues and challenges in this globalised world. This multifaceted and dynamic concept, intellectual property covers areas such as:

1. Copyright;
2. Trademarks;
3. Patents;
4. Industrial designs; and
5. Geographical Indications

Part I of the course summarises the nature and basic principles underlying the main branches of Intellectual Property.

Trademarks: The theory and practice of private remedies for the protection of “trade identity” and related intangibles of commercial value: the focus on legislations and conventions governing trademark and its impact on private rights to regulate the use of trademark, trade names and unfair competition practices. Topics examined are the common law action of passing off, distinctiveness, use of the criterion for trademark registration and the procedure for opposing a grant of registration.

Copyright: The fundamentals of copyright in music, literature and the arts. Among the areas covered are the manner and scope of protection of dramatic, musical, artistic and literary works, the concepts of authorship and ownership, originality, the idea/expression dichotomy and the fair dealing defence and thorough analysis of copyright acts, international conventions and case law. The course attempts to assess the copyright regimes in terms of its justification and its public policy objectives, exposing students to theoretical discussions surrounding copyright protection in the information and Internet era.

Patents: Patents provide limited term monopoly-like property right in inventions- “product of the mind”. The purported purposes of patent law are encouragement of innovation and product for social benefit. The course examines the statutory basis of patent law in an international context and covers the doctrinal development in case law for patents and trade secrets. The course also explores contemporary controversies over the expansion of patent rights in biotechnology and the shift from copyright protection for computer programmes.

Trade Secrets: arise from the combination of contracts, equity and property law.

Building on the introductory part on Intellectual Property, Part II of the course goes on to examine:

- Some of the issues and problems that the law must confront in the age of information and technological innovation;
- The Digital Age and the question of the extensive use of the Internet as a tool in modern commerce, domain names and non-original databases;
- How these well-established principles interface with business development and developing countries concerns;
- The challenges faced by Commonwealth Caribbean countries which operate within the strictures of WTO and the Free Trade Areas of the Americas (FTAA).

It is therefore imperative that trade negotiators understand the world trading system and the unprecedented linkage between intellectual property and trade which must inform Caribbean trade negotiations.

This brings into sharp focus the role of the Caribbean Regional Negotiating Machinery and its trade negotiators who need to appreciate the value and importance of intellectual property. They must find creative and innovative negotiating techniques that would buy leverage and create positive prospects for Caribbean businesses, operating within the context of CSME and the wider global economy.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6490TITLE: ADVANCED CORPORATE INSOLVENCY*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Insolvency law has become part of the mainstream commercial law and plays a significant economic and social role in contemporary credit economies, the Commonwealth Caribbean being no exception. The insolvent company raises complex issues of law and policy that impact on rights and obligations. This has fuelled a greater focus on the existing legal regulatory framework and its ability to cope with the consequences of business failure.

Undoubtedly, amongst the many challenges that globalisation presents for businesses in the Commonwealth Caribbean the issue of the sustainability of companies in this new globalised dispensation will loom large. Thus the philosophy and policies which inform business operations and strategies in the Commonwealth Caribbean must be thoroughly analysed in the context of the legal and regulatory framework within which companies operate.

It is therefore important that lawyers and insolvency practitioners in general understand recent developments in insolvency law and increase their awareness of developments internationally, with a view to improving procedures and practices to deal with both existing and new problems.

In this context, the course will consider the fundamentals of business insolvency from a Commonwealth Caribbean perspective while examining the comparative bankruptcy and insolvency regimes. This course combines an analysis of relevant statutory material, concepts and procedures with an understanding of the policy choices in Corporate Insolvency and the different rules which an insolvency regime may play in the contemporary Commonwealth Caribbean society.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6520TITLE: ADVANCED INTERNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL LAW*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course examines the principles, rules, policies, politics, conventions and institutions of international and transnational environmental law:

The basic principles and philosophies that have shaped the emergence of international environmental law.

The political economy of international environmental law particularly the relations between developing and developed countries.

The broader international law context within which the subject is largely nested.

The majority of the course is then devoted to specific topics. These include: sustainable development policy; trade and the environment, jurisdiction over conservation of maritime living resources; marine pollution, territorial biodiversity and trans-boundary pollution. These issues and the legal and institutional responses to them are examined through a variety of conceptual frameworks.

The course concludes with a look at Caribbean International Environmental Law.

Candidates who undertake this course successfully should be capable of:

1. Explaining the basic implications in general international law of new developments in Caribbean legal integration;
2. Identifying the limits on freedom of political decision and economic management to which states have legally committed themselves in the process of integration;
3. Advising policymakers from a legal perspective what would be the policy implications of proposals to deepen and extend the integration process;
4. Participating effectively in discussion of the technical trade concepts which are employed in the design of the CSME and evaluating the compatibility of the CSME regime with other trade arrangements in place or under consideration;
5. Continuing their self-education in the issues canvassed in the course by making effective use of information technology; and
6. Researching and writing on such issues.

Reading

The heavy dependence on web-based sources of official documents and decided cases, which can be expected to continue to appear at frequent intervals, will dictate the reading assignments for this course. Round the clock access to the internet will provide the basic source of information, with supplementary access to printed periodical materials and works of reference. Detailed reference to the texts of the Revised Treaty of Chaguaramas and of the Revised Treaty of Basseterre will be required, and copies of those texts will be available for consultation while writing the examination.

ASSESSMENT

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course is offered as a core course in semester 2 of the LLM in Oil, Gas and Energy Law. Knowledge of Contract Law, Business Law, Real Property, Environmental Law and Public International Law would be an asset to understanding this course. This course is designed to give students a high level and critical thinking about fundamental legal issues associated with the Oil, Gas and Energy Law industry. It will include a study of Oil, Gas and Energy Law contracts, leases and liability issues, Sales and Marketing, Taxation and accounting, and Dispute Resolution issues involved in the Oil, Gas and Energy Law. Knowledge of Oil, Gas and Energy Law is a specialist area and will help to prepare students for a 21st Century law career. In addition, the course is designed to encourage creative and critical thinking, effective oral and written communication skills, and strong ethical values.

The following topics will be discussed in this course:

- Oil, Gas and Energy Law Contracts
- Oil, Gas and Energy Law Sales & Marketing
- Oil, Gas and Energy Law Taxation & Accounting
- Oil, Gas and Energy Law Dispute Resolution

COURSE CODE: LAW 6613TITLE: ENERGY TRANSITIONS AND INTERNATIONAL ENERGY INVESTMENTS (PART 1)*CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course is offered as a core course in semester 1 of the LLM in Oil, Gas and Energy Law. This course covers the main environmental impacts of the Oil, Gas and Energy Law cycle, from exploration to abandonment/decommissioning, and the key functions of the environmental laws for the protection and monitoring of the human and physical environment and energy transition. The role of the Oil, Gas and Energy Law industry in the broader context of climate change and transboundary pollution will be a subject of study in the course and students will be expected to evaluate alternatives to fossil fuel for energy production such as renewables. The importance of the links between sustainable development and environmental protection, and how these issues impact legislation for the Oil, Gas and Energy Law industry in global, regional and national contexts will also be highlighted.

The following topics will be discussed in this course:

- Health, Security, Safety and the Environment
- Energy Transition & Climate Change
- Corporate and Social Responsibility

COURSE CODE: LAW 6720

TITLE: PUBLIC LAW I (ADVANCED CONSTITUTIONAL LAW)

CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course in Advanced Constitutional Law takes a distinctly comparative and philosophical approach to the study of constitutional law. The idea is to give students a better appreciation of the theoretical issues embedded in the whole area of constitutional law. The comparative perspective helps students appreciate similarities and differences between Commonwealth Caribbean Constitutional Law and the constitutional law of other countries, in particular, the United States, the United Kingdom, Canada and South Africa.

The course proceeds on the central premise that constitutional law is foundational: it is that area of law that establishes the legal foundation of the State and the allocation of its sovereign powers among the central institutions of the State, and lays down the ground rules for the exercise of political authority in the society. Above all else, constitutional law is that area of law that addresses itself to defining the relationship between the individual citizen and the State.

The course begins by addressing the question of Constitutional Fundamentals: questions about the nature of a constitution - its legal and moral validity; in other words, questions regarding the obligation of the citizen to obey the constitution; questions as to what makes a constitution valid law. These are questions that cannot be answered according to law, but are rather questions for political theory and moral philosophy.

In order to address some of these philosophical questions, we begin with the question of constitutional founding, using the U.S. Founding as representing the closest approximation in modern history of the ideal of constitutional founding.

The course then considers the issue of constitutional fundamentals in respect of Britain and Canada before focusing on the Commonwealth Caribbean. In each case, the idea is to take a sampling of certain cases thought to address issues of constitutional fundamentals. In the case of Canada, the Secession Case (1998) might well be ideal; whereas, in the case of the West Indies, the case of Ophelia King v. the Attorney General (Barbados) will suffice.

Part II

The second part of the course focuses in more detail on the Constitutional Structure of the State. It explores the question of the centrality of the principle of Separation of Powers, as a structural and normative principle, in the design of the just State and to the practice of judicial review.

Part III

The third part of the course focuses on Fundamental Rights. This is the most intensely philosophical aspect of the course and begins by considering the central question of the nature of fundamental rights: What makes a right fundamental.

The remainder of the course is taken up with extensive treatment being given to each fundamental right. That begins with Freedom of Speech and the Press - the premier democratic right - considering its centrality to public discourse and democratic governance. This is followed by Freedom of Religion, having regard to the importance of religion and religious beliefs in human life. The critical task is to construct a principle of freedom of religion for a pluralist society such as Trinidad.

Next, the course studies Property as a fundamental right. Here, we explore the moral basis of property rights; that is to say, starting with Locke's Labour Theory, the course attempts to articulate a philosophical justification for the recognition of property rights as fundamental rights and draw the connections between rights to liberty and rights to property. But property is a special kind of social institution, or 'defining who, in a society, may control various classes of valuable objects for a variety of present and future purposes and the conditions under which this power may be exercised.' On this view, property rights are understood to be an integral part of the economic organisation of any society. It also means there are limitations on the exercise and enjoyment of the 'right.' For example, the State, through its police, tax and eminent domain powers, may impose limitations on property for the purpose of the economic and social development of the country and to achieve a more equitable distribution of wealth in the society.

This is followed by Due Process and the Right against Cruel, Inhuman and Degrading Punishment or Treatment. This covers the whole range of death penalty cases in the Commonwealth Caribbean.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6730

TITLE: PUBLIC LAW II (ADVANCED ADMINISTRATIVE LAW)

CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course in Advanced Administrative Law is designed principally to satisfy the continuing need for legislative draftspersons to remain topical and appreciative of the radical changes taking place in a dynamic discipline.

The philosophy behind the syllabus is to provide students with a firm theoretical grasp of Administrative Law principles as well as appreciation of the directions in which Administrative Law is moving. While focus is on the Commonwealth Caribbean we shall inexorably be adopting a comparative approach to our seminars, drawing on precedents from the wider Commonwealth as well as the respective jurisdictions from which our students are drawn.

The course proceeds on the central premise that we live in regulated societies, those regulations being measured against the constitutional backdrop. Furthermore, it is a tenet of modern-day reality that increasingly litigation as between citizens has given place to litigation between citizens and the state. Accordingly, the course focuses on those areas of the law that draftspersons ought to be constantly aware of, as they draft laws and offer policy advice to governments.

The course begins by addressing the question of Administrative Law fundamentals. Through an examination of select case law, trends and movements are identified with respect to new directions in Judicial Review.

Ouster Clauses

Students will be called upon to reflect on the conflict between two fundamental principles. - The right of access to the courts by citizens who have a genuine grievance versus the right of Parliament to decide on what legislation is appropriate for the good governance of the polity.

A critical examination of the role of the courts will be undertaken. The fundamental question to debate is whether, having regard to the overwhelming attitude of the courts toward ouster clauses, the valiant attempts to legal draftspersons to exclude judicial review are exercises in futility.

The Boundaries of Administrative Justice

Using the Administrative Justice Act of Barbados, as a model, students will be required to examine both procedural and substantive aspects of administrative justice. A detailed and reasoned critique of the Administrative Justice Act will be given to the students to offer their version of a redraft of the Act in the light of its evolution and the decided cases.

Natural Justice

For the Caribbean region, natural justice is not simply a common law doctrine designed to offer procedural protections to citizens across the board. Natural Justice is firmly embedded in the bowels of Caribbean constitutions. Seminal cases on the subject will be critically examined and analysed.

Doctrine of Legitimate Expectation

A new and evolving doctrine, there is legitimate scope for argument and discussion as to how far its boundaries should extend.

An opportunity will be provided, once again, to pit the Caribbean case law against those of other jurisdictions, notably the UK, Australia, Canada and South Africa.

Remedies

From the prerogative writs, to orders and now to the inclusion of some important Private law remedies, the field is now chocked. By what principle can we rationalise these remedies? Should there be a single set of remedies or not? Should the courts be permitted to offer advisory opinions by way of aiding good administration? Should the courts play a part in developing a code of good administration?

ASSESSMENT

This course will be assessed by means of one or more of the following:

- a. A written final examination of three hours duration;
- b. Coursework;
- c. A take home examination.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6740TITLE: LEGISLATIVE DRAFTING*CREDITS: 12

COURSE DESCRIPTION: The objective of this course is to instruct in the techniques of writing legislation. Instruction is given by exercises devised to simulate on-the-job training in a government drafting service through the assignment and revision of drafting projects.

Emphasis will be on the composition of legislation. Other topics are complementary and are devised to give the student a greater awareness of the place and role of legislative drafting in the legislative process, and to enable the student to make comparisons with and understand the legislation of drafting services elsewhere.

The course will be delivered under the following headings:

A. Introduction

1. Preliminary and General: □ Legislative Institutions; Classes of Legislatures; Instruments of the Written Law; and History of Parliamentary Drafting
2. Drafting Environment: □ Drafting Services in the English speaking societies; Comparing Drafting Services □ Strengths and Weaknesses; and Law Officers of the Crown Complex

1. The Legislative Sentence: □ English Tradition; Colonial Tradition; American Tradition; Coode's legislative sentence; and "Modern" legislative sentence
2. The Grammatical Sentence in Legislation: □ Achieving a simpler form; "Plain English" Functional Clarity; New and old styles; and Communication difficulties
3. Elements of the Legislative Provision: □ Coode's Legislative sentence; and Grammatical Sentence examined
4. Exercises in Writing Legislative Provisions
5. Preparing the Draft Legislation: □ Legislative Policy and Role of Drafters; Analyses; research, syntheses; Legislative Plan; Revision and Editing and Checking; Environment
6. Standing Orders; and Constitution Interpretation Acts, etc.
7. Relations of the Drafter to Ancillary Processes: □ House Committees – Second Reading; Responsibility to sponsoring Minister, Chief Law Officer, Clerks of Parliament, Cabinet, and Printing Office

C. Statutes

1. Public Bills: □ Government Bills; Private Members Bills; Private Bills; and Hybrid Bills
2. Acts: - Public Acts; Local and Personal Acts; Private Acts; Omnibus Acts; Amending Acts; Consolidating Acts; Codifying Acts; and Repealing Acts
3. Statutes: - Accessibility of Legislation; Tables and Indices; Text Processing, Storage and Retrieval; and Responsibility of Drafting Services

4. Revision of Statutes: - Consolidation and Revision; Classes of Revision; Types of Revisors; Publication Methods; Recording of Sources; and Text Processing Methods

D. Management and Operation of the Drafting Office

1. Classification of Drafting Services: - Autonomous office; Dependent office; Hybrid office; and Other offices
2. Relationship to Parliamentary Process: - United Kingdom; Barbados; United States - Federal and State; Canada - Federal and Province; and Comparison of Advantages and Disadvantages
3. Ancillary or Related Services: - Construing Statutes; and
4. The Drafter's Perspective

ASSESSMENT

This course will be assessed by means of one or more of the following:

- a. A written final examination of three hours duration;
- b. Coursework;
- c. A take home examination.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6750

TITLE: ADVANCED INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW

CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course considers international human rights law as this field has developed since the end of the Second World War. Emphasis will be placed on the so-called "three generations of human rights", namely: (a) civil and political rights, (b) economic, social and cultural rights, and (c) group rights, such as the right to development. The nature and content of various rights will be examined, and although these rights will be considered mainly from a legal standpoint, reference will be made to the political and economic considerations that help to explain modern conceptions of human rights. The course will also consider developments with respect to the International Criminal Court and the law pertaining to the status of refugees. Considerable attention will be paid to the application of international human rights norms to Caribbean circumstances, as well as to the relevance of human rights norms in the context of modern terrorism.

ASSESSMENT

This course will be assessed by means of one or more of the following:

- a. A written final examination of three hours duration;
- b. Coursework;
- c. A take home examination.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6760

TITLE: ADVANCED INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT LAW

CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: International investment law is the area of public international law, which governs foreign direct investment and the resolution of disputes between foreign investors and sovereign States. The course will cover such topics as the genesis, development and current features of international investment law; standards of treatment; protection against illegal expropriation; investor-state arbitration; and the future of international investment law.

ASSESSMENT

1. The course will be assessed by way of 100% coursework.

COURSE CODE: LAW 6900

TITLE: RESEARCH PAPER

PREREQUISITES: COMPLETION OF ALL COURSES

CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: A candidate, who intends to submit a Research Paper shall submit a research proposal before the end of his second semester or teaching session. The Research Paper should be between 10,000-12,000 words exclusive of the bibliography, footnotes and appendices. The Research Paper requires wide reading. It is an exercise in thinking and reflection.

The Research Paper should indicate a fair degree of originality in argument, conclusion and source material. Where appropriate, evidence of extensive reading, clear comprehension of secondary materials and well-planned presentation may compensate for lack of originality. There is no set course content in terms of research topic areas.

Choice of Topics

A candidate has a choice of topics, insofar as the topic chosen has relevance to Corporate and Commercial Law, Public Law or Intellectual Property Law. However, the candidate should not choose a topic taught by instruction on the LLM programme except where the proposed Research Paper will go considerably beyond the topic as taught. A topic chosen by a candidate is subject to approval by the Board for Graduate Studies and Research.

Submission of Proposals

The Proposal should be submitted for approval to the Chairperson, Subcommittee for Graduate Studies, Faculty of Law (St. Augustine), and copied to the Deputy Dean, Graduate Studies and Research, Faculty of Law (St. Augustine), The University of the West Indies before the end of his or her second semester or teaching session.

The Proposal should include a synopsis of the topic of the Research Paper and should give detailed information on:

- a. the need for the study;
- b. the scope of the study;
- c. methodology;
- d. research materials (including citation of the relevant cases, statutes, treaties, journal articles and books);
- e. the format, inclusive of headings and sub-headings; and
- f. the potential use of the study.

The candidate may consult the Deputy Dean, Graduate Studies and Research, or a member of the academic staff in preparing the Proposal. This will enable the candidate to determine the appropriate scope or precise scope of the Research Paper to be undertaken. A candidate may request a particular member of staff to supervise the Research Paper and consult that staff member on his or her availability and for preliminary assistance. However, there is no guarantee that a staff member consulted will automatically be assigned to supervise the writing of the Research Paper of the candidate. Where a candidate has not requested a particular staff member to be his or her Supervisor, the Chairperson of the Sub-Committee, Graduate Studies will appoint a Supervisor for that candidate.

The candidate shall consult regularly with the Supervisor, and adhere to the supervisory directions and arrangements between the Supervisor and the candidate. The candidate has the responsibility to make the Supervisor aware of the progress of the research and of the difficulties encountered in the preparation of the Research Paper.

In determining whether a candidate should register for the Research Paper, the Sub-Committee, Graduate Studies will consider, among other things, the following: (a) the candidate's performance in the four six (6) credit courses; and (b) the availability of a supervisor for the Research Paper.

Form of Research Paper

The Research Paper should:

- a. have a title page which contains the title of the Research Paper, the name of the student, the Faculty degree sought and the academic year of presentation;
- b. be organised into chapters with headings and sub-headings where appropriate;
- c. be free of typographical, grammatical or other errors;
- d. be typed on 8.5 x 11" sized paper, double spacing; and
- e. have well organised appendices where applicable, name of supervisor, a table of contents, footnotes and a well-arranged bibliography with the author, title, date and place of publication clearly stated.

Presentation and Style of the Research Paper

The candidate should seek to submit to the Supervisor the draft of the Research Paper within a reasonable time so as to enable final comments of the Supervisor to be made and to allow for alterations in time for the final Research Paper to be submitted by the required date which would normally be the end of the semester or teaching session after the appointment of the Supervisor.

The style of citation should follow the style of the Oxford Standard for Citation of Legal Authorities or OSCOLA.

The candidates are encouraged to utilise primary sources where appropriate, in particular, unreported West Indian cases in the Law Library, UWI (accessed online on CARILAW and in hard copy); and, where possible, newspaper reports, reports from regulatory and quasi-judicial bodies.

Candidates must submit their Research Papers of the prescribed length properly documented with footnotes and bibliography. Candidates must submit four (4) spiral-bound copies of their Research Paper in type-written form on 8.5 x 11" paper and electronic format.

Candidates are encouraged to use the Turnitin software to evaluate their Research papers prior to submission.

ASSESSMENT

COURSE CODE: LAW 6910

TITLE: SUPERVISED LEGISLATIVE DRAFTING INTERNSHIP

CREDITS: 6

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Permission of Dean of Law or Deputy Dean (Postgraduate and Research) is required before students select this course. Note that students will not be permitted to intern with a present employer.

Students permitted to take this course will engage in intensive legal drafting over the course of a summer term. They will work very closely with a supervisor and the legal unit within which that supervisor operates. The student will learn to take instruction and to research and draft legal documents, including legislation.

The course will be assessed by way of a student-created portfolio and a supervisor's report. The portfolio comprises all of the legal documents and legislation produced by the student during the internship. The supervisor's report formally assesses the student's performance during the internship.

ASSESSMENT

- a. Portfolio – 70% of the course mark;
- b. Supervisor's Report – 30% of the course mark.

MPHIL/PHD LAW

Entry Requirements

MPhil

The following are eligible to apply for admission to the MPhil Law programmes:

- Persons holding approved graduate degrees awarded primarily for research;
- Persons holding a taught Master's degree from the UWI or other approved University, provided that the Master's degree included a research component of at least 25% of the total credit rating and the applicant achieved at least a B+ average or its equivalent; or
- Persons possessing such other qualifications and experience as the Board for Graduate Studies may approve.

PhD

The following are eligible to apply for admission to PhD Law programmes:

- Persons holding approved graduate degrees awarded primarily for research;
- Persons holding a taught Master's degree from the UWI or another approved University, provided that the Master's programme included a research component of at least 25% of the total credit rating and the applicant achieved at least a B+ average or its equivalent;
- Persons registered in MPhil degree programmes of the UWI who have met the requirements for upgrading of their registration, as stipulated by the Board for Graduate Studies and Research; or
- Persons possessing such other qualifications and experience as the Board for Graduate Studies and Research may approve.

All new applicants to the PhD programme will be required to register for the MPhil first, and then upgrade to the PhD within a year or two, as provided by the UWI postgraduate guidelines:

- Except where a student has an excellent proposal and a Master's degree with distinction and experience, the faculty can admit the student directly into the PhD program, based on the recommendation of faculty and admission criteria prescribed for PhD; and
- There will be a maximum two-year period to upgrade for all students regardless of registration status
- The upgrading of registration from MPhil to PhD will follow the procedures under the UWI regulations 1.40 available on the following website: <https://sta.uwi.edu/research/research-degrees>
- Students who upgrade from the MPhil to the PhD will get to transfer the 6 credits acquired during the MPhil and will only be required to obtain 3 additional credits.

Availability of Expertise and Resources

Admission is contingent on whether candidates have a thesis proposal compatible with the expertise and resources available in the Faculty of Law (St. Augustine)

Application Process

Applicants are strongly advised to consult with the Deputy Dean for Graduate Studies prior to applying. The Faculty of Law will provide information, and where applicable, advice on the research proposal. The research proposal is a core element of the application.

Programme Structure/Course of Study

Students in the MPhil and PhD degree programmes are required to successfully:

1. Complete a minimum of six (6) credits of coursework for MPhil/nine (9) credits of coursework for PhD,
2. Present seminars (2 for MPhil/3 for PhD), and
3. Submit a thesis.

Courses

Students in the MPhil and PhD degree programmes should determine with their supervisor which courses would satisfy the credit requirements. Courses should be completed in the first year. Students registered for the MPhil are strongly encouraged to do LAW 6900: Research paper course (6 credits).

Compulsory Seminar Presentations

For each seminar, candidates are required to write and present a paper to be distributed beforehand on a topic arising out of their research as well as to field questions put to them afterwards.

Thesis

Candidates are required to present and defend a thesis of acceptable scope and quality for the degree. The Thesis must follow the guidelines set out in the University's Thesis Guide.

Conferral of the Degree

The successful completion of the compulsory coursework, Seminar Presentation and the Thesis will lead to the award of the degree.

THE CAMPUS LIBRARIES

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE WEST INDIES ST. AUGUSTINE CAMPUS

The Campus Libraries support the teaching, learning and research activities of The University of the West Indies (UWI), St. Augustine Campus (STA) community. These libraries include:

- The Alma Jordan Library
- The Medical Sciences Library
- The Norman Girvan Library of The Institute of International Relations
- The Republic Bank Library and Information Resource Centre of the Arthur Lok Jack Global School of Business
- The School of Education Library
- The Patience-Theunissen Memorial Library of the Seminary of St. John Vianney & the Uganda Martyrs Theological Institute at Mt St Benedict
- The Seismic Research Centre Library, and
- The UWI-ROYTEC Allan McKenzie Library

Resources for Students

Each Library's website (libraries.sta.uwi.edu/) is the gateway to its comprehensive electronic, print, and multimedia information resources. From there, students can access state-of-the-art, scholarly, full-text databases on and off campus. The specialised and constantly updated collections contain information relevant to all faculties, research centres, and institutes on Campus. They currently provide access to approximately:

- electronic resources: 258 databases, 104,337 e-journal titles, and 68,158 e-books
- print resources: 439,343 books/monographs

Moreover, a sizeable body of Caribbean research may be accessed from maps, microforms, newspapers, theses, photographs, oral history interviews, and over 150 special collections in the West Indiana and Special Collections Division (WISC).

Research Support

An online chat service which provides users with immediate responses to questions in real-time with library staff, is available from The Alma Jordan Library, The Medical Sciences Library, The School of Education Library, The Republic Bank Library & Information Resource Centre, and The Norman Girvan Library websites. Users can also submit queries when staff is not online. Users can find answers in the Frequently Asked Questions (<https://uwi-sta.libanswers.com/>) at The Alma Jordan Library and The Medical Sciences Library.

The Institutional Repository, UWISpace, facilitates the collection, preservation, and distribution of the scholarly/research output of the University. Researchers can also archive and preserve datasets generated by their research activities.

UWIScholar (uwischolar.sta.uwi.edu) is The University's research information management system designed to aggregate and manage researcher (faculty and students) profiles and facilitate global networking and expertise discovery. UWISpace dataset links can be added to the research list in UWIScholar.

The libraries also provide services and software that enable UWI faculty, staff, and students to publish their subscription and open-access online journals (journals.sta.uwi.edu/). These journals are published using the Open Journals System (OJS), an open-source editorial management and publishing system, which can manage some or all of the stages of the journal publishing process, including submissions, peer review, editing, online publishing, and indexing.

The Alma Jordan Library, in collaboration with the St. Augustine Centre for Innovation and Entrepreneurship (STACIE) and the Intellectual Property Office of the Ministry of the Attorney General and Legal Affairs, provides an Intellectual Property Help Desk Service (libraries.sta.uwi.edu/ajl/index.php/services/ip-help-desk) to help support researchers.

THE STUDENT LIFE AND DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT (SLDD)

DIVISION OF STUDENT SERVICES AND DEVELOPMENT (DSSD)

The SLDD is the first and most important STOP for high quality academic support and personal development.

WHO CAN ACCESS THE SERVICES OF SLDD?

ANY student can access the services through self-referral or referrals by Faculties, Departments, friends, family, etc. SLDD caters to the needs of students who are Full-Time, Part-Time, Postgraduate, Undergraduate, Mature, International, Regional, Student Athlete and Students with Disabilities and Medical Conditions. We provide support to ALL students in the following areas:

GENERAL SUPPORT – ALL STUDENTS

- Peer-Pairing
- Referral to Counselling
- Access to a Safe Space for relaxing and restoration

ACADEMIC SUPPORT - ALL STUDENTS

- Time Management
- Examination Strategies
- Workload Management
- Study Skills - one on one sessions
- Educational Assessment/Screening – Lucid Adult Dyslexia Screening (LADS) & Learning and Study Strategies Inventory (LASSI)
- Peer Tutoring – one on one sessions

INTERNATIONAL AND REGIONAL STUDENT SUPPORT

- Assistance with Immigration matters – renewal of landing stamps
- Liaising with faculties and departments in The UWI and the Immigration Division regarding immigration matters

POSTGRADUATE AND MATURE STUDENT SUPPORT

- Opportunities for student employment such as peer tutoring, and special examination invigilation

UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS ON PLAGIARISM

APPLICATION OF THESE REGULATIONS

These Regulations apply to the presentation of work by a student for evaluation, whether or not for credit, but do not apply to invigilated written examinations.

DEFINITIONS

1. In these Regulations, "plagiarism" means the unacknowledged use of the words, ideas or creations of another and includes situations where the student reuses without acknowledgment their own previously written text, ideas or creations when writing any new work.
 "Level 1 plagiarism" Level 1 plagiarism occurs where small quantities of the work are affected and/or the breaches are minor. It includes cases of cosmetic or poor paraphrasing, negligent referencing or incorrect or missing citations.
 "Level 2 plagiarism" Level 2 plagiarism occurs where large quantities of the work are affected and/or the breaches are serious. It includes cases in which a significant amount of material is borrowed or directly quoted or cosmetically paraphrased with no attribution at all, or attribution insufficient to indicate that the borrowed material is not the work of the student.
2. What may otherwise meet the definition of plagiarism may be justified for the purposes of Regulation 2 where the particular unacknowledged use of the words, ideas and creations of another is, by the standards of the relevant academic discipline, a function of part or all of the object of the work for evaluation whether or not for credit, including without limitation:
 - (a) The unacknowledged use is required for conformity with presentation standards;
 - (b) The task set or undertaken requires producing a result by teamwork for joint credit regardless of the level of individual contribution;
 - (c) The task set or undertaken requires the use of an artificial language, such as is the case with computer programming, where the use of unoriginal verbal formulae is essential.
3. The fact that a user enjoys the right of use of certain words, ideas and creations as a matter of intellectual property, does not justify their unacknowledged use under Regulations 2 and 3.
4. In these Regulations, "BGSR Regulations" means The University of the West Indies Regulations for Graduate Certificates, Diplomas and Degrees; "Director" means the Director for Graduate Studies and Research.

EVIDENCE OF PLAGIARISM

5. In order to constitute evidence of plagiarism under these Regulations, there must be identified as a minimum the passage or passages in the student's work which is/are considered to have been plagiarised and the passage or passages from which the passages in the student's work are considered to have been derived.

STUDENT CERTIFICATION

6. When a student submits for examination prepared work under Regulation 1, the student shall sign a statement, in such form as the Board for Graduate Studies and Research may prescribe, that the work submitted is free of plagiarism including unattributed unjustified quotation or paraphrase. The student may utilise electronic vetting to facilitate the assessment and certification. The results of the electronic vetting shall be provided to the Supervisor by the student when the work is submitted to the Supervisor for approval to submit for examination.
7. Quotation or paraphrase is attributed for the purpose of Regulation 7 if the writer has indicated that the work is not the writer's own, even if the source is not identified.
8. Absence of certification does not prohibit the University from proceeding with a charge of plagiarism.

ELECTRONIC VETTING FOR PLAGIARISM BY THE UNIVERSITY

9. The Director may authorize or direct the Faculty Office, or other authorised body on behalf of the Campus Committee, that the work submitted under Regulation 7 be subjected to further electronic scrutiny in order to verify its freedom from plagiarism before being submitted to the Examiners. The results of the electronic vetting shall be submitted to the Director, the Dean and the Head of Department, and shall be considered in determining whether the University proceeds with submission of the work to the Examiners. The results of such electronic vetting although capable, where the requirements of Regulation 6 are satisfied, of constituting evidence under these Regulations, are not thereby conclusive of any question as to whether or not plagiarism exists.

10. Where suspected plagiarism is detected, whether through the procedures outlined in Regulation 10, or whether subsequently during the course of examination, the person(s) detecting the suspected plagiarism, whether the Dean, Head of Department or Examiner, shall:
 - (a) where there is suspected evidence of Level 1 plagiarism in work which does not constitute a thesis or major project report (defined as the report comprising 25% or more of the total credits for the programme), refer the matter to the Examiners for their consideration as a charge of Level 1 plagiarism under Regulation 12; or
 - (b) where there is suspected evidence of Level 1 plagiarism in a thesis or major project report, refer the matter to the Director as a charge of Level 1 plagiarism under Regulation 13; or
 - (c) where there is suspected evidence of Level 2 plagiarism, refer the matter to the Director as a charge of Level 2 plagiarism under Regulation 19.

LEVEL 1 PLAGIARISMPlagiarism in Work which does not Constitute a Thesis or Major Project Report

11. In work submitted for examination which does not constitute a thesis or major project report under the University Regulations for Graduate Certificates, Diplomas and Degree, and where the Examiners are satisfied that Level 1 plagiarism has been committed, they shall levy a penalty for the Level 1 plagiarism charged in the form of a reduction in the marks which would have otherwise been awarded. The First Examiner must inform the Campus Registrar of the penalty levied and of the evidence of plagiarism. When the normal examination process is complete, the Campus Registrar must communicate this information to the student.

Plagiarism in Theses and Major Project Reports

12. In the case of theses and major project reports, evidence of Level 1 plagiarism must be reported to the Director to support a charge of Level 1 plagiarism by the Dean, the Head of Department or an Examiner, where the person making the report considers that Level 1 plagiarism has been committed. Such a report and charge may be made regardless of the outcome of any scrutiny under Regulation 10.
13. If the Director considers that Level 1 plagiarism has been committed as charged, the Director shall return the submitted work to the student for revision and resubmission within a period determined by the Director but which may not exceed one year. The outcome and the penalty levied shall be reported to the Board for Graduate Studies and Research and the University Registrar. The University Registrar shall inform the student of the outcome of the assessment and the penalty levied.

Appeals

14. In the case of work which is neither a thesis nor a major project report, a student may appeal against the finding of plagiarism or the penalty levied under Regulation 12 to the Head of Department or, where the Head of Department is the First Examiner who has levied the penalty, to the Dean. Where the same person discharges both the functions of Dean and Head of Department and is also the First Examiner who has levied the penalty, the appeal is to the Director.
15. In the case of theses and major project reports, the student may appeal to the Board for Graduate Studies and Research from a decision of the Director under Regulation 14.
16. The Board for Graduate Studies and Research, the Director, the Dean or the Head of Department, as the case may be, hearing the appeal, in a Level 1 plagiarism case, may hear the appeal by correspondence. In the case where the Board or person hearing the appeal is not satisfied that there has been plagiarism, or considers that the penalty levied was excessive, they may allow the appeal or remit or reduce the penalty accordingly.
17. The Board for Graduate Studies and Research, Director, Dean or Head of Department, hearing the appeal, as the case may be, shall report the outcome of the appeal to the Campus Registrar, who shall advise the student accordingly.

LEVEL 2 PLAGIARISM

18. When a Director receives a report of suspected Level 2 plagiarism under Regulation 11(c), whether the evidence is in a thesis, a major project report or in work which does not constitute either a thesis or major project report, the Campus Co-ordinator may either:
 - (a) where not concurring with the identification of evidence of Level 2 plagiarism, communicate with the person(s) reporting the suspected plagiarism, whether the Dean, Head of Department or Examiner, declining to proceed further in relation to the Level 2 proceedings, and shall in addition:
 - (i) indicate that the decision is intended to preclude the invocation of the procedures for Level 1 plagiarism; or
 - (ii) indicate that the avenue is open for the matter to be treated as a case of suspected Level 1 plagiarism under Regulation 12 in work which does not constitute a thesis or major project report, or as a case of suspected Level 1 plagiarism under Regulation 13 in work which constitutes a thesis or major project report; or
 - (b) where concurring, refer the matter to the University Registrar who shall inform the person(s) reporting the suspected plagiarism and the student that there is a case to be answered, subject to an application under Regulation 20.
19. Where the Director replies in the terms of Regulation 19(a), the Dean, Head of Department or Examiner may apply, no later than the elapse of two complete calendar weeks after the reply has been notified, through the University Registrar to the Chair of the Board for Graduate Studies and Research seeking a reversal of the Director's decision.
20. The Chair of the Board for Graduate Studies and Research may:
 - (a) where concurring with the identification of evidence of Level 2 plagiarism, uphold the application in Regulation 20 and treat the case as one which has been referred to the Chair under Regulation 19(b); or
 - (b) deny the application.
21. A denial by the Chair of the Board for Graduate Studies and Research of an application under Regulation 21(b) is, subject to Regulation 32, conclusive in relation to an allegation of Level 2 plagiarism in the case under consideration.
22. A denial by the Director under Regulation 19(a) which is, after the elapse of three complete calendar weeks after the reply has been notified, not the subject of an application under Regulation 20, or a denial by the Chair of the Board for Graduate Studies and Research under Regulation 21(b), terminates the proceedings on the plagiarism charge, subject to Regulation 32 and save to the extent that the Director has ruled otherwise under Regulation 19(a)(ii).
23. Where the matter has been referred under Regulation 19(b) or an application has been upheld under Regulation 21(a), the Chair of the Board for Graduate Studies and Research, at the request of the University Registrar, shall establish a Committee of Inquiry comprising:
 - i. The Chair of the Board for Graduate Studies and Research or his/her nominee.
 - ii. One Academic Board representative from each campus sitting on the Board for Graduate Studies and Research.
 - iii. One postgraduate student representative from among those sitting on the Board for Graduate Studies and Research.

Four members of the Committee including the Chair shall constitute a quorum.
24. The Committee of Inquiry is not a court of law but the hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of natural justice. The Committee may summon witnesses to give evidence.
25. The Committee of Inquiry reserves the right to have legal representation.
26. The student shall be given a written notice from the University Registrar specifying the allegations of the Level 2 plagiarism, along with a copy of all material relevant to the charge and made available to the Committee, at least fourteen days before the hearing of the allegation and within three calendar months of the case first being reported to the Director.
27. The student shall have a right to appear before the Committee of Inquiry and to be accompanied or represented by a friend or by an attorney-at-law whose expenses will be borne by the student.

28. The student shall have the right to ask questions of witnesses, to call his/her own witnesses, to make statements on his/her own behalf, and to make submissions.
 29. If the student fails to make an appearance before the Committee of Inquiry and does not offer a satisfactory excuse, the Committee of Inquiry may hear the case in the student's absence.
 30. Where a Committee of Inquiry has been established under Regulation 24, the procedure under these Regulations prevails, subject to Regulation 32, over any other disciplinary proceedings against the student based on the same facts and, without prejudice to Regulation 38. Any other such disciplinary proceedings must be terminated, subject to being re-opened to consider a recommendation of the Board for Graduate Studies and Research under Regulation 34(b).
 31. Where other disciplinary proceedings based on the same facts have been completed or have reached the stage of a hearing, whichever comes first, any procedure under these Regulations based on a charge of Level 2 plagiarism shall be terminated.
 32. (a) If the Committee of Inquiry is satisfied, after holding a hearing, that the student has committed Level 2 plagiarism, it shall in making a determination on the severity of the penalty take into consideration:
 - (i) the circumstances of the particular case;
 - (ii) the seniority of the student; and
 - (iii) whether this is the first or a repeated incidence of plagiarism by the student.
 33. Where a determination on the severity of the penalty has been made, the Committee of Inquiry shall report its conclusions and recommendations to the Board for Graduate Studies and Research which shall:
 - (i) if the work in which the plagiarism occurred was not a thesis or major project report, fail the student in the assignment and hence the course in which the assignment was submitted, with the option to re-take the course at a time specified by the Board;
 - (ii) if the work in which the plagiarism occurred was a major project, fail the student in the project report, with the option to re-do and re-submit a project report on a different topic at a time specified by the Board;
 - (iii) if the work in which the plagiarism occurred was a thesis, either:
 - (a) find the thesis to be inadequate, requiring re-submission of the revised thesis within eighteen months of the date of notification; or
 - (b) fail the thesis, with no allowance for re-submission.
 34. The Board for Graduate Studies and Research may also, if the Committee of Inquiry so recommends after being satisfied that the student has committed Level 2 plagiarism, either:
 - (a) exclude the student from all further examinations of the University for such period as it may determine; or
 - (b) recommend to the relevant Academic Board that the student should be dismissed from the University, with or without the possibility of re-entry.
 35. The decisions taken by the Board for Graduate Studies and Research following receipt of the conclusions and recommendations from the Committee of Inquiry with respect to the outcome of the hearing and the severity of the penalty shall be communicated by the Chair of the Board to the University Registrar who shall inform the student, the Dean, the Head of Department and the Examiners of the decisions taken.

Clearance on a Charge of Level 2 Plagiarism

36. If the Committee of Inquiry is not satisfied, after holding a hearing, that the student has committed Level 2 plagiarism, it will direct the Director to reply to the Dean, the Head of Department, the Examiners and the student, through the University Registrar, advising them of the decision against proceeding further on the charge of Level 2 plagiarism, and may in addition:
 - (a) indicate that the decision is intended to preclude the invocation of the procedures for Level 1 plagiarism; or
 - (b) indicate that the avenue is open to pursue the matter as a case of Level 1 plagiarism under Regulation 12 in work which does not constitute a thesis or major project report, or as a case of Level 1 plagiarism under Regulation 13 in work which constitutes a thesis or major project report.

37. A determination of the Committee of Inquiry under Regulation 33 terminates the Level 2 plagiarism proceedings and also precludes any further Level 1 plagiarism proceedings except as indicated by the Committee of Inquiry under Regulation 36(b).

Appeal to the Senate

38. A student may appeal to the Senate from any decision of the Board for Graduate Studies and Research under Regulations 33 and 34(a) and of Academic Board under Regulation 34(b).

DELEGATION BY DEAN OR HEAD OF DEPARTMENT

39. The Dean or Head of Department, as the case may be, may generally or in a particular instance delegate that officer's functions under these Regulations.

SUPERVISOR'S CONFLICT OF INTEREST

40. Any person who has at any time been a supervisor of work in relation to which an issue of plagiarism is being considered under these Regulations must withdraw from performing any functions under these Regulations other than those of supervisor and examiner.

CONDUCTING RESEARCH AT THE UWI

All applicants who use The UWI as a Research Site i.e. will interview staff, students or collect secondary institutional data should complete the Assurance Form and upload this along with the request for approval in the UWIScholar portal.
