

“Issues in Child Development: focusing on Autism”

DATE: September 29th 2011

VENUE: Child Health Unit, FMS, EWMSC

VISITING LECTURER: Dr. Jeffrey Brosco
Prof. Clinical Pediatrics
University of Miami School of Medicine

PROPOSED ACTIVITIES:

- Dinner Lecture: “An update on current best practice in the diagnosis and management of autism”.
- Public Lecture: “Identifying autism and supporting families-current evidence-based best approaches”
- Training of medical personnel in the identification of young persons with the spectrum of disordered development
- Session for postgraduate students